THE ALUMNI NEWS-LETTER

THREE SUBSTANTIAL ALUMNI DONATIONS RECEIVED BY GOSHEN COLLEGE

At the Home-coming banquet last November 20, President Miller announced that an alumni couple who preferred to withhold their name had contributed $3,500 for the further expansion of Goshen College. The spirit of the donors is expressed in their own statement: "We are giving this to the most permanent institution of the church. When relief programs, and C. P. S. camps, and many other activities now going on will no longer be required, we will still need the college, and if she does not continue to train our leadership, the church herself will disintegrate."

The second substantial donation that has recently been received by the college was received from the I. Z. Musselman family, Orrtanna, Pennsylvania, and amounted to $4,500. This gift was contributed to the endowment fund.

The third gift came in the form of an annuity contract for $8,000 taken out by J. E. Brunk 15, Goshen, Indiana, a few days ago. Although none of these gifts can be used for operating expenses they are the type of contributions which are needed to bulwark the economic foundations of the college and make possible needed expansion in the future. These gifts are significant because they come from alumni who have sent their children to Goshen College.

CHANGES IN COLLEGE PROGRAM FOR SECOND SEMESTER

President Miller announced on Friday, January 9, that Goshen College is adjusting its program to permit students who are subject to draft to complete their degrees before being called to camp. By action of the faculty, the current school year will be shortened by three weeks, with commencement falling on Monday, May 18, instead of Monday, June 8. This is accomplished by shortening final examination periods, by elimination of the spring recess, and shortening of the second semester class work by one week. Credit will be given for a full year's work.

Following the completion of the regular year, a three weeks' intersession will be offered from May 19 to June 7, during which students may earn three hours of credit. This will be followed by the regular summer session of nine weeks, in which students may earn nine hours of credit. After the summer session, a postsession of three weeks will be offered in which again three hours of credit may be earned. The intersession, summer session, and postsession together will equal one semester's work. In this way, students may get three semesters of credit in one year. Juniors will be able to finish their degrees by the end of the first semester of next year, and sophomores will be able to finish their degrees by September 1, 1943. The juniors will gain a half year of time and sophomores a full year, being able to complete their course in three years.

In setting up this program, the college has in mind particularly students who are subject to draft, whether they go to civilian public service camps as conscientious objectors or as regular soldiers to the army. However, all students who wish to do so may take advantage of this plan. Many students will find the three weeks gained by shortening the school year very useful to secure employment and additional income. Thus all students will benefit, whether drafted or not.

This is an emergency measure in which Goshen College joins the other colleges of the nation in providing the utmost possible service to men subject to draft, thus contributing to the national welfare in this time of crisis. President Miller has been constantly on the alert for the implications of the war on the college program. From January 2-5 he was in Baltimore attending a meeting of the Association of American Colleges and the National Conference of College and University Presidents on Higher Education and the War, where national leaders of higher education and prominent government officials discussed these problems.

COLLEGES OF HISTORIC PEACE CHURCHES SEEK MEANS OF CONTRIBUTING TO NATIONAL EMERGENCY

Because the National Conference of College and University Presidents on Higher Education and the War, which met in Baltimore, January 3-5, was devoted almost entirely to ways in which the colleges could contribute to the war effort, delegates from the historic peace churches met at a luncheon on January 4 to discuss ways of contributing to the present crisis consistent with their pacifist traditions.

Thomas Jones, president of Fiske University and executive director of the Quaker C. P. S. Committee, outlined several areas of activity, such as community health service, food production, reconstruction and relief work, for which Quaker, Brethren, and Mennonite colleges could train their students.

The value of sharing suggestions along these lines seemed so great that an unofficial co-ordinating committee was appointed by the group. This committee includes John W. Nason, president of Swarthmore College, Swarthmore, Pa.; A. C. Baugher, president of Elizabethtown College, Elizabethtown, Pa.; Ernest E. Miller, president of Goshen College; and Thomas Jones, president of Fiske University, who was chosen as a fourth member by the original three.

The committee hopes (1) to share information on ways in which colleges in the historic peace group can consistently make their contribution to the nation, (2) to report on the success, or lack of it, in this field, (3) to stimulate suggestions from all members of the group, and (4) to present any plans being worked out to government officials for recognition of what is being done. The suggestions made by Thomas Jones have already been submitted to Mr. John W. Studebaker, United States Commissioner of Education, and have his approval.

GOSPEL TEAMS ON TOUR

The Extension Committee of the Y. P. C. A. sent out three gospel teams during the Christmas vacation under the sponsorship of the College Administration.

Each team consisted of a leader, several speakers, and a quartet. President Miller and Professor Paul Mininger each accompanied one team. Programs consisted of musical numbers by the quartet, talks by the speakers, and, in the case of two groups, an address by the accompanying minister. One of the following three programs was given at each appointment: "Being a Christian Today," "The Witness of Mennonite Youth in Our Day," or "Meeting Our Spiritual Needs."

The team that went to Canada, New York, and Pennsylvania included Harold Mishler (leader), Ed Alderfer, Millard Lind, a men's quartet—Warren Leatherman, Harold Oyer, John Liechty, Robert Studer—and Professor and Mrs. Mininger.

The team that toured Illinois was led by Ernest Lehman and included Royal Bauer, Wilfred Ulrich, Weyburn Groff, Kay Nelson, a ladies' quartet—Thelma Miller, Alta Hertzler, Miriam Sieber, Edna Good—and President Miller.

A third team led by Russell Krabill, chairman of the Extension Committee of the Y. M. C. A., toured Iowa and parts of Illinois and Indiana. Clayton Beyler, Royce Engle, John Detwiler, Don McCammon, and a men's quartet—Eugene Greenwalt, Stanley Swartzendruber, Gail Yoder, Chester Long—were included in the personnel of this team.

PROMINENT ALUMNUS JOINS O. P. M.

Mr. E. A. Meyer 20 who has been associated with the C. H. Musselman Company of Biglerville, Pennsylvania, for the past twenty-one years, has been appointed as Consultant on canned foods in the Food Supply Branch of the Purchases Division of the Office of Productive Management. Mr. Meyer began his service with the O. P. M. on October 6 after resigning as vice-president and sales manager of the Musselman Company and disposing of his interests in that business.

Because of his broad experience in both the production and sales branch of the canning industry, Mr. Meyer is especially qualified for his new task. He will be associated with John L. Baxter who heads the canned and dehydrated food unit in the Division of Purchases.

Mr. Meyer's business address is Room 2627, Social Security Building, 4th and Independent Streets, Washington, D. C.

WINTER BIBLE SCHOOL

The Winter Bible School opened on Monday, January 5, and at this writing has enrolled 72 students. This enrollment is considerably lower than the last several years. Last year 95 were enrolled, while two years ago the school passed the one hundred mark. The drop in enrollment is due in part to the draft law, and perhaps still more to the widespread opportunity for gainful employment.

The student body comes from the following states: Indiana, Ohio, Illinois, Pennsylvania, Michigan, and Oregon. The men number 33 and the women 39.

By the second week the student activities have been organized. A religious committee arranges for prayer and other meetings, a literary and social committee provides suitable recreational meetings, while a news committee is on the lookout for those facts and events which will make interesting reading when the term is over.

The teaching is done by D. A. Yoder x07, Elkhart; I. E. Burkhart 26, Goshen; I. W. Royer 00, Orrville, Ohio; O. N. Johns x07, Canton, Ohio; J. J. Hostetler, Canton, Ohio, and several college teachers who each offer one course. The curriculum and activities are so designed to afford the student a balanced religious, educational, and social experience.

—I. E. Burkhart.

CONFERENCE ON MENNONITE SOCIOLOGY HELD IN CHICAGO DECEMBER 31

Since industrialization and urbanization are threatening Mennonite group life, a conference of Mennonite students and educators was called in Chicago for Wednesday afternoon and evening, December 31.

Representatives from various branches of the Mennonite Church, Mennonite sociological students, and representatives from at least four Mennonite colleges under the chairmanship of Winfield Fretz, Ph.D., Bethel College, listened to addresses on "The Sociological and Economic Significance of the Mennonites as a Cultural Group," "Rural Life Problems and the Mennonites," "Problems Confronting Mennonite Youth," "Ethical Dilemmas of Mennonites in Industry," "Secularization among the Mennonites," "Fruitful Areas of Research in Mennonite History and Sociology," "Mennonite Community Life in Russia," "Lessons from the Mennonite Colonies in Paraguay," and "The Significance of Mutual Aid for Mennonite Communities." A panel discussion on "The Function of Mennonite Colleges in Shaping the Future of the Mennonite Church" was conducted by four college presidents: Bethel College, Ed. G. Kaufman; Bluffton College, Lloyd Ramseyer; Goshen College, Ernest E. Miller; and Tabor College, A. E. Janzen. Other periods of discussion were opened to the group by the chairman at various times during the conference.

One important question came to the fore during these discussions: Can Mennonitism Survive Urbanization? No attempt was made to find the ultimate answer to this problem in the few short sessions of this conference.

The following alumni and faculty were on the program: E. E. Miller 17, H. S. Bender 18, and Guy F. Hershberger of the Goshen faculty, and Melvin Gingerich 26, Bethel College. Other alumni present at the meeting included O. O. Miller 15, Mrs. Melvin Gingerich (Verna Roth x29), Grant Stoltzfus 41, J. C. Meyer 16, Edith King 40, H. Clair Amstutz 33, W. H. Smith 28, I. E. Burkhart 26, Carl Kreider 36, and L. C. Hartzler 35. A few other faculty members and friends of Goshen College were also present: Paul Bender, Glen R. Miller, Robert Friedmann, and F. D. King.

"Power Through Unity"

In all the history of the Alumni Association of Goshen College there has perhaps never been a time when its motto has been as significant as today—"Power through Unity."

Power-mad men have united their peoples in an effort to control a part or all of the world. The rest of the world is uniting to secure sufficient power to defeat them.

The gigantic politico-economic struggle taking place in the world today has engulfed our whole society. Goshen College cannot escape. She can only fight bravely in an effort to train young men and women for Christian service. The power to achieve that goal will be generated if Goshen's alumni and friends unite behind her wholeheartedly. Goshen College needs your spiritual, moral, and financial support.

—H.

ALUMNI CONTRIBUTIONS

Contributions to the Alumni Division of the Goshen College Accreditment Plan have been coming in steadily since the annual appeal was made in November. Many alumni sent Thanksgiving donations and quite a few remembered their Alma Mater at Christmas time and at the beginning of the New Year.

Some alumni have adopted the policy of sending twice a year and many alumni are sharing a part of their giving with Goshen College each year. Our goal is one hundred per cent loyalty.

Up until January 7 of this year, $1,840 were contributed in the Alumni Fund for 1941-42. This is slightly ahead of the same time last year. However, our goal is $5,000. We must reach our goal in order to keep Goshen College operating. Even reaching that goal will not insure us against a deficit. We are raising the board charge of students for the second semester and taking other steps consistent with proper educational policy to offset increased food costs, a decrease in enrollment for the second semester, and a decrease in N. Y. A. funds. The balance on the ledger after those adjustments have been made is so small that failing to make our budget may leave the college with a substantial deficit this year.

Such a situation can be avoided if we remember our motto and obey it: "Every alumnus a contributor every year."

To all those who are so nobly supporting Goshen College, the Alumni Association and the College Administration wish to express their sincere thanks.

A Correction

Through an error the Alumni Donations column of the September NEWS-LETTER listed Mrs. E. S. Deter (Violetta Nice) as a contributor from the Class of 1917. Mrs. E. S. Deter was formerly Edith Huffnagle. Violetta H. Nice 17 is Mrs. D. S. Deter of Morrison, Illinois, whose contribution with that of her husband is announced in this issue of the NEWS-LETTER. We beg your pardon.

FACULTY MEMBERS GAIN RECOGNITION

Dr. H. Clair Amstutz 33, college physician and instructor in biology, was elected vice-president of the Indiana Student Health Association at the annual meeting of the association held December 13 in the Indiana State Board of Health building on the Indiana University campus in Indianapolis. Officials interested in student health from nineteen Indiana colleges and universities are members of the association.

Carl Kreider, Ph.D., 36, was recently notified by his thesis adviser, Professor Frank D. Graham of the Princeton University faculty, that the International Finance Section of the university would publish his thesis on The Anglo-American Trade Agreement as series eight in its series of studies in International Finance. Kreider was granted his degree last June. Such an offer from the university speaks for the quality of Dr. Kreider's thesis.

CAMP HENRY

One of the recently established C. P. S. camps is located at Henry, Illinois, and named Camp Henry. The administrative staff includes Leland Bachman 38, manager; Mrs. Leland Bachman (Elsie Mae Springer 26), matron; Ralph Hernley 41, educational director; Mrs. Ralph Hernley (Elizabeth Sieber 39), dietitian; and Cornelius Lohrenz, business manager.

Administrative Staff of Camp Henry

When the camp opened early in December, Mrs. Hernley was employed as dietitian at the college and could not leave until the holidays. Orval Shoemaker 41 took her place as camp cook until she was able to assume her duties. Orval was well qualified for the job, having taken courses in home economics at Goshen College and having served as chef in the Snack Shop.

MEETING OF ELKHART COUNTY PRINCIPALS AT GOSHEN COLLEGE

On Wednesday evening, December 10, the high school principals of Elkhart County and their wives met in the dining hall of Goshen College for a dinner with the college faculty and their wives.

The speaker for the evening was Dr. A. J. Brumbaugh, Dean of Chicago University and since 1938 secretary of the Commission Institution of Higher Education of the North Central Association of Schools and Colleges. He challenged both the high school principals and college officials to give proper guidance to high school graduates in selecting the college or university suited to their needs. He also pointed out some of the overlappings in the curriculums of the high schools and the colleges.

The meeting fostered a better spirit of understanding between the college and the local public school officials.

FACULTY TRAVELS DURING CHRISTMAS VACATION

President Miller spent December 19-22 touring with a gospel team and then accompanied by Mrs. Miller spent a quiet Christmas with the latter's mother at Williamstown, Ohio. From December 26-29 he was at his desk at the college and on December 30 visited friends at Wellman, Iowa. After attending the Mennonite Sociology meeting in Chicago on December 31 he went to Baltimore for the National Conference of College and University Presidents on Higher Education and the War.

Dean Bender spent December 29-January 3 in Chicago attending a meeting of the Church History Society, the Conference on Mennonite Sociology, and the annual meeting of the Mennonite Central Committee. He spoke on the subject, "Lessons from the Mennonite Colonies in Paraguay" at the Sociology Conference.

Dr. and Mrs. S. C. Yoder spent the holiday season in Florida visiting their son Myron 27 and his family at Sarasota, and their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. David Zimmerly (Marguerite Yoder 30) at Miami. They also visited Ruth Yoder 18 at Vero Beach where she is managing several large orange groves, and drove down to the Florida Keys.

Professor Guy F. Hershberger attended the American Historical Association Meeting December 29-31, spoke on "Ethical Dilemmas of Mennonites in Industry" at the Conference on Mennonite Sociology, December 31, and attended a meeting of the General Conference Committee on Industrial Relations, December 31—all in Chicago.

Professor and Mrs. Paul Erb spent the first week of the holidays in Mississippi with Mrs. Erb's parents, the Abram Ebys. Professor Erb went deep sea fishing one day and says he caught one crab. From December 31-January 4 he assisted in a Bible Conference at the Mennonite Church in Springs, Pennsylvania.

Professor Willard H. Smith attended the American Historical Association Meeting in Chicago December 29-31, and the Conference on Mennonite Sociology, December 31, also in Chicago.

MY LEAVE OF ABSENCE

By John Umble

It all began way back in Goshen last summer. Seated in my office I received one of those cryptic requests (?) to appear at the President's office at a certain hour. When I arrived I was announced and shown in with the secretary's usual courtesy.

The ensuing conversation ended with a statement from the President something like the following: "Well, I have decided to give you a leave of absence. I am not going to require you to study. I do not expect you to write. You have written two books in the last two years. I want you to take a trip, rest, travel, and come back with plenty of new things to talk about."

Accordingly on September 17 we left Goshen, crossed Illinois, Missouri, southeastern Kansas, central and southwestern Oklahoma, northern New Mexico and Arizona, made a short detour through southwestern Utah and southeastern Nevada, then (October 17) went to the Pacific coast at Los Angeles.

On November 21 we left the coast at San Diego for the return trip eastward, crossing the great desert, the Imperial Valley, southern Arizona and New Mexico, and southwestern Texas to Laredo.

At that point we crossed the Rio Grande into Mexico on December 17 and drove to Mexico City in three easy stages, stopping overnight at Monterrey and Valles. From Mexico City we have taken side trips westward over the mountains to the Friday market at Toluca and southward over the mountains to Cuernavaca and Taxco, vacation spots of the Aztec rulers centuries ago and week-end residences of the conqueror, Cortez, Emperor Maximilian, and the present ruling class of Mexico. Our farthest point south was the torrid little town of Mexcala on Rio Balsas, 153 miles south of Mexico City and 916 miles south of Laredo. The speedometer on our Ford has clocked more than 10,000 miles since we left Goshen.

This is January 1, 1942, and we plan to make our return trip in a few days via Laredo, Texas, and along the Gulf Coast, through Texas, Louisiana, and Mississippi. From there we expect to shiver our way into the frozen north!

I trust that the readers of the NEWS-LETTER will realize how utterly impossible it is to convey an adequate idea of the value and enjoyment of such a trip, especially in one short article, and I realize how precious space is to Mr. Hartzler as he edits this issue of the NEWS-LETTER. But here are a few high points.

Perhaps the highest of all were the pleasant contacts with alumni at various points in all the states visited. Outstanding, of course, was our visit with our son, Frank, and his wife at Enid, Oklahoma.

It seems unfair and in a sense ungrateful to single out any others for special mention, but we look back with particular gratitude and pleasure to the kindnesses shown us by the Salzmans at Upland, California, to our two days' visit and mountain driving with Roland Yoders of Altadena, California, and to the week ends spent at Los Angeles with the Glenn Whitakers, the Harry Shoups, the Cecil Smiths, and the Paton Yoders. The Los Angeles group is doing a fine piece of missionary work among both white and colored boys and girls. And, if any of you alumna plan to do any postoperative convalescing or rest-curing you can do no better than to spend a few weeks or months at En-Dah-Win, Elma Shoup's lovely home for women.

A particularly bright spot of the trip was our stay in Phoenix, Arizona, where we were several times entertained by Pauline Oyer and her friends and the Professor Samuel Burkhards at Tempe, Arizona. We also recall with pleasure a delightful French dinner in a quaint little restaurant in Tucson, Arizona, with Professor and Mrs. F. A. Conrad.

Never having been west of the Rockies before, we have learned many things on this trip: that Pueblos are Indian villages usually built of sun-dried bricks called adobes, fashioned on the ground out of mud and straw, then left there to dry till they are hard, and then laid up in a wall with more of the same mud used as mortar, then plastered inside and out with a one-inch coat of the same mud; that cliff dwellings are Indian homes built of stones or adobe bricks under overhanging cliffs; that deserts are not bare waste spaces but that one may drive hundreds of miles across desert country never out of sight of mountains and never entirely without vegetation even though it may be only a struggling scattered growth of creosote bush; that nearly all the Southwest depends on irrigation for the growth of crops either with water gathered in reservoirs from snow melting on the mountains or with well water as is true in the vicinity of Tucson, Arizona, where we saw huge centrifugal pumps, electrically driven, pumping an eight-inch stream of water twenty-four hours a day from wells three hundred feet deep; that California is practically a man-made country where nature left to herself raises sage brush and cactus but man, by the importation, cultivation, and irrigation of tropical and semitropical fruits, shrubs, and flowers has created one of the most lovely and most wholesome spots for human habitation; that rain or even too much moisture in the air is actually an enemy of the date grower who prefers to give his trees one hundred twenty inches of water a year and soak the soil to a depth of twelve feet by irrigation.

Mexico, also, is a land of wonders to a traveler from the Temperate Zone. We had always heard of Mexico as the Land of Manana, the Land of Tomorrow, the land where it is never necessary to do anything today but to postpone it till some future time. We have found nothing here to justify that opinion. Everyone seems to be hurrying. Peasant women carrying burdens of considerable size actually trot toward town along the country roads. Men riding the patient little burro play a constant tattoo on his sides with their heels to hurry him along. Immense building projects are under way, road building, huge industrial plants and housing programs and everywhere men are working skillfully, energetically. Mexico may be the land of tomorrow but in quite another sense from what we had been taught to believe. It is a land of grace and beauty with wonderful future possibilities.

Mexico is also a land with a great past. Here they show one a cemetery that was covered by a lava flow from a volcanic eruption probably ten thousand years ago and acres of religious pyramids that were built by a race which had disappeared entirely from the country before the Aztecs arrived here in 1325.

An American has many interesting experiences with the language in this country and soon finds it useful to pick up a few simple phrases. The other day I drove down to the square called The Alameda and parked my car intending to walk down one of these narrow one-way streets to get our mail at the office of the American Express Company. To make sure I was not parking in a restricted zone, I stepped into a store and summoning some Spanish and some Latin that I hoped might pass for Spanish, I inquired, "Este permisso Estacionamento aqui?" and pointed to the car. A pair of these deep, lustrous dark Spanish eyes looked through me for a moment and then one of these melodious Spanish voices replied gravely, almost without an accent, "Yes, mister, you may park your car there as long as you want to." More frequently, however, one needs to muster all his Spanish or what he hopes is Spanish only to find it scarcely adequate. But everyone is extremely courteous and helpful.

Standing on the threshold of this new age which World War II is ushering in, it behooves young America to learn Spanish. Young Mexico is learning English.

There is not space to tell of our week at the Grand Canyon, of another week on the shores of the Pacific, and of the days spent at Jion and Boyce Canyons, at the Carlsbad Caverns, and at the many fine national monuments, especially Chiricahua, Wupatki, White Sands, Saguaro and Organ Pipe Cactus.

Although Mrs. Umble and I have tried to live frugally, we are bringing back with us many happy memories and a considerable fund of knowledge that should make my work at Goshen College interesting to young people.

If you Alumni would like to hear more of the story, stop at 101 College Avenue, Goshen, to see some of the nearly 500 colored pictures that I have taken on the trip.

As I read over what I have written, I realize only too well how little I have said; but hope that what is here briefly stated will indicate that I have taken President Miller's charge seriously. My leave of absence has not meant loafing.

PERSONALS

Mary Ellen Shoup x43 is employed in the office of the Standard Meat Packing Company, Los Angeles, as private secretary to the personnel manager.

Roland Yoder x23, instructor in economics at Goshen College, 1929-32, is connected as account representative with Conrad Bruce and Company of Pasadena, investment broker and brokerage service. His company specializes in investment research and supervisory investment service. During 1940 Mr. Yoder led the organization in total amount of business done as represented by commissions earned. He is the author of a recent pamphlet entitled, "Inflation: What Everyone Should Know and Do about It." Forbes Magazine has purchased the rights for publication and distribution of the pamphlet. Mr. and Mrs. Yoder (Esther McWhirter x23) have purchased the beautiful California type residence at 1760 Pepper Drive in fashionable Altadena at the foothills of the Sierra Madre Mountains just below Mt. Wilson. Mr. Yoder's early training on the farm has given him knowledge of soil management and crop fertilization that is producing extra fine specimens of ornamental trees and flowering shrubs as well as citrus trees already bending under the weight of the 1942 crop. Daughter Elizabeth has grown to be quite a young lady and is now in high school. Son Daniel is in the sixth grade and gives promise of growing tall, blond and handsome! One of the family cars, the high-powered, fluid-drive Chrysler, added several hundred miles to the speedometer total, traveling over the excellent highways along the Pacific, across the Sierra Madres, into the Mojave Desert and up the new highway to Mount Wilson Observatory during Professor and Mrs. Umble's several days' stay in Altadena during November.

Elma Shoup x43 has rented the large dwelling house at 1517 Grenshaw Boulevard in a fashionable residence district of Los Angeles and has converted it into a home for elderly women, postoperative cases, and convalescents. She can accommodate twelve patients and expects, as her business grows, to add more help to her present staff of one cook and one full-time nurse. She has given the home an Indian name: En-Dah-Win, meaning "my home." Although remodeling, redecorating, and furnishing the home delayed the opening until October 1, the project is already on a paying basis. But listen, men! No use rushing into that appendectomy with the expectation of convalescing at En-Dah-Win! Miss Shoup accepts only women residents.

At the Armistice Day program of the Winton, North Pomona, and Los Angeles Mennonite churches held at the Calvary Mennonite Church in Los Angeles, on November 11, the forenoon service was devoted to a discussion of nonresistance and the duties of citizenship. An interesting feature of the program was a report of the work at the C. O. Camp in the San Dimas Canyon, northeast of Los Angeles. Jasper Goodman x40, formerly of Elkhart, Indiana, had charge of the delegation of C. O.'s, gave an interesting talk on life at the camp, and took charge of the question period following the talks.

A visitor to the Mennonite Mission at 151½ Seventy-third Street, Los Angeles, soon gains the impression that the work of the superintendent and matron, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Whitaker (Ferne Zimmerman x36), is highly appreciated, not only by the section of the city served by the mission, but also by the growing number of Mennonites who are making Calvary Mennonite Church their church home while living in the vicinity of Los Angeles. The Whitakers, in addition to their pastoral duties, render a valuable service to the boys and girls of the community by conducting, during the winter months, various types of club work —shop work for the boys and home economics projects for the girls—and, during the summer, camping on the slopes of Mt. Wilson. All the work has a strong Bible teaching and evangelistic emphasis, a number of conversions having resulted directly from the Bible classes held at the summer camps. Contrary to general belief, the mission is not supported by the M. B. M. C. but is dependent entirely on voluntary contributions. Alumni wishing to make an occasional donation to a worthy cause can send their offering to Brother Whitaker and rest assured that their gifts will be wisely and prayerfully expended in a practical program of soul-winning.

Professor and Mrs. Paton Yoder 35 (Hazel Smucker 30), of Westmont College, Los Angeles, are among the faithful workers at the Seventy-third Street Mission, driving twenty miles or more several times a week to assist in the Sunday School and Young People's Bible Meeting on Sunday and in the club work on evenings during the week. Professor and Mrs. Yoder and little son, Devon, enjoy living in Los Angeles. They occupy the first floor of a large, well-built dwelling built by one of the former aristocrats of Los Angeles, now rented by Westmont College as a residence hall for men and a home for the faculty adviser, which position Professor Yoder holds in addition to his history professorship.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Smith (Verda Bachman x28), daughters, Jean and Vineta, and sons, P. J. and David, are living in a beautiful, roomy, western style house at 225 North Harvard Street, Los Angeles. They are regular attendants at Calvary Mennonite Church on Seventy-third Street and help to maintain the one hundred per cent enthusiasm of Goshen Alumni for the California climate. Mr. Smith is building up a lucrative business repairing and reconditioning automobiles.

Rev. and Mrs. Earl Salzman 32 (Vinora Weaver 18), their charming little daughters, Margaret and Dorothy, and baby, Ruth Ellen, are enthusiastic about life in California and Rev. Salzman's new pastorate, the First Mennonite Church of Upland. One pleasant feature is the generosity of their parishioners, many of whom own large citrus or English walnut groves and vineyards. Their home at 382 South Sixth Avenue, Upland, is probably as beautiful and convenient as any Mennonite parsonage in the United States. Rev. Salzman admits that he felt a slight tinge of homesickness for the Middle West when he read in the home-town (Topeka, Indiana) newspaper about the corn husking contest.

Over forty years ago whenever the Philharmonic Chorus in Elkhart sang "The Messiah," or "The Creation," or "Elijah," it was taken for granted that "Joe" Brubaker would sing the bass solos. And many of the older alumni still remember with pleasure his excellent performance on those occasions. Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Brubaker have lived in California for the past twenty years. They reside on North Prospect Street in Orange, California, in the heart of the citrus country and have over 900 bearing citrus trees on their ranch. Mr. Brubaker is a member of the association known as "Sunkist Growers" who grow only the finest citrus fruit. Mr. and Mrs. Brubaker are faithful supporters and regular attendants at the Calvary Mennonite Church in Los Angeles. Two of their daughters, Emma Margaret 20 and Josephine x22 (Mrs. Claire R. Seeley), are Goshen College alumnae. Both have received the M.A. degree at the University of California at Berkeley. Miss Emma Brubaker is a junior high school instructor in mathematics at Berkeley. Mrs. Seeley and her husband, who is also a teacher, live in San Diego at 3859 La Cresta Drive, about a mile from the Pacific.

Pauline Oyer x35, of 30 East Vernon Street, Phoenix, Arizona, holds a position of great responsibility as chief clerk in the office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation at Phoenix. Her roommate, Miss Lita Weaver, a former resident of Shipshewana and a graduate of Manchester College, is assistant librarian of the Phoenix Union High School. Their landlady, a Mrs. Rogers, is chief librarian of the same school. On November 30, Miss Oyer was elected secretary-treasurer of the Business and Professional Young People's Class in the First Baptist Sunday School in Phoenix.

Professor Samuel Burkhard 11, of Tempe, Arizona, teaches courses in philosophy and psychology at Arizona State Teachers College. He also takes a prominent part in the civic, religious, and cultural life of his city. He is a member of the city council and is scheduled for four lectures before civic groups during December. Professor and Mrs. Burkhard (Elsie Byler 11) live at 920 Forest Avenue, across the street from the college campus. Their four sons are all students of engineering: Charles, the eldest, is married and completed the work for the master's degree in chemistry at Purdue University in June as a graduate fellow and is continuing his study at that institution on a special fellowship during the present year; Eugene is a senior at the University of Arizona at Tucson and is a holder of a scholarship; Merton is a sophomore and Kenneth a freshman in Arizona State Teachers College at Tempe.

On December 9, Professor F. A. Conrad 12, of the sociology staff of the University of Arizona at Tucson, delivered a chamber lecture open to the public on the subject, "The Future of the American Metropolis." He read a paper on this subject before the Christmas holiday meeting of the Pacific Coast Sociological Society in San Francisco. Professor and Mrs. Conrad (Margarite Showalter 10) live on Palm Road, a few steps from the building in which Dr. Conrad's office is located. Their only child, a daughter Gene, freshman at the college at Redlands, California, underwent an appendectomy during the first week in December. She plans to resume her college work in January.

Ezra Beachy 33 was ordained to the ministry at the Fort Wayne Mission on Sunday October 5, to take charge of the church at Pinckney, Michigan. Mr. and Mrs. Beachy (Bertha Nohejl 34) and their four little girls have been living near Sherwood, Ohio, where Mr. Beachy was employed in the public schools.

Miss Adeline Aschliman 41 is instructor of Nursing Education at Robinwood Hospital, Toledo, Ohio.

Marie Brubaker 39, North Lima, Ohio, is teaching the six grades of the Germantown school near her home. She has twenty-four pupils, five of whom are Mennonites and nineteen, Old Order Mennonites.

Kathryn Yoder 40 is teaching school near Coldwater, Ohio. Her address is Route 1, Coldwater.

A farewell meeting was held at the Mennonite Church near Middletown, Pennsylvania, on Sunday, October 19, for Mr. and Mrs. Samuel E. Miller 41 (Ella May Weaver 41) who sailed as missionaries to Argentina on the S.S. "Brazil" on October 24. Dr. S. C. Yoder spoke at the farewell service for the Millers. According to the latest reports they are now studying language and living with Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Brenneman 37 at the Villegas station.

Mrs. Robert G. Marshall (Claire Kennell 17), of Evanston, Illinois, was confined to the Evanston hospital during the month of August, 1941, suffering from complete exhaustion and pneumonia. She has recuperated nicely since that time. Mr. Marshall who suffered a coronary thrombosis in 1940 has recovered completely.

Howard Zehr 41 is studying at the Northern Baptist Theological Seminary in Chicago. He frequently serves the Mennonite Church near Freeport, Illinois, which has recently been deprived of a minister through the death of its pastor, S. E. Graybill.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester T. Hershey 36 (Alta Good 38), assisted by a group of Mexican young people from their mission in Chicago, gave the Missionary Day program at the Mennonite Church near Freeport, Illinois, on November 16.

On November 26, Nelson Litwiller 25, missionary to Argentina, underwent a serious operation for infected roots of a molar. A second tooth was removed to make possible the draining of a badly infected sinus. The operation took place at the British Hospital in Buenos Aires. According to latest reports Brother Litwiller is recovering nicely.

Vernon Schmidt 39, who was sent to the Mennonite Colony in Paraguay by the Mennonite Central Committee to plan and supervise the construction of a hospital, is also assuming responsibility for purchasing hospital equipment. In his letter of December 14 he says:

"I have enjoyed the past few days while working with Franz Heinrichs in purchasing supplies. I have improved my German talk and understanding very much since here, but I still have a long way to go. I have succeeded in obtaining most of the items I need for the building."

Schmidt arrived in Asuncion, Paraguay, on November 16, 1941.

Mr. and Mrs. Norris E. Hunsberger (Ruth Cook 36) now reside at 820 Washington Street, Constantine, Michigan. Mr. Hunsberger is pastor of the Mennonite Brethren in Christ Church in Constantine.

Professor and Mrs. Melvin Gingerich 26 (Verna Mae Roth x29) and their two sons are now living in North Newton, Kansas, while Professor Gingerich teaches history and government and coaches debate at Bethel College. He was granted a leave of absence for one year from Washington Junior College where he had been teaching for the last ten years. Professor Gingerich's debaters made a good showing in a tournament at Kansas State Teachers College, Pittsburg, Kansas, when his girls' team won four out of five debates in the Junior College division and his men's team won three out of five debates in the Senior College division. The question for debate was: "Resolved that the Federal Government Should Regulate All Labor Unions of the United States."

Amsa Kauffman 29 reports that a recent high point in the work among the Mexicans in Southern Texas was the dedication of a new church building in Falfurrias on Christmas morning. One hundred thirty-five Mexicans and several American families were present to witness a Christmas program and participate in the dedicatory service which followed. Bro. and Sister Kauffman (Nona Miller x25) conduct services at Normanna every Sunday morning, at Helena every Sunday afternoon, and at Falfurrias every second Sunday. Over sixty Mexicans have been received into church fellowship to date.

Bishop and Mrs. P. A. Friesen (Florence Cooprider 10) are in charge of the new Denver, Colorado, Mission. The first communion service was held on December 21 with thirty-six believers participating. The congregation was organized with about twenty-five charter members.

Rev. Lester Hostetler 15, of Upland, California, joined the Bethel College faculty in September, 1941, as editor of the Bethel College Bulletin. Rev. Hostetler is doing an excellent piece of work as editor. The Bulletin has improved greatly in appearance, organization of material, and content.

Grant Stoltzfus 41 is Director of Publicity at the Mennonite Central Committee office, Akron, Pennsylvania. He has also been appointed director of the Hagerstown, Maryland, C. P. S. camps which will be opened about March first. There will be two farm camps employing about twenty-five men each.

On September 7, 1941, George W. Holderman 35 was licensed to preach for the Mennonite Congregation at Limon, Colorado, by Bishop Allen H. Erb x11.

William J. Yeager x31, Loudonville, Ohio, sends word that he has just received his M.A. degree from Ohio State University.

Mrs. George Smith (Wilma Miller 37) is teaching York Center school about two miles south of Vistula, Indiana. She secured the position early in January. Her husband is serving in the C. P. S. Camp at Bluffton, Indiana.

Mrs. Elizabeth Jacobs (Elizabeth Gingerich 96), R. 1, Biglerville, Pennsylvania, in sending her donation to the Alumni Division of the Goshen College Accreditment Plan the other day, writes that she is contributing to her Alma Mater in order to start the new year right. Mrs. Jacobs has the right idea. She received the first diploma issued by the Elkhart Institute after it was established in 1895-96. In 1897 she began teaching shorthand and typing at the institute and in 1899 married Wellington K. Jacobs 99, the commerce and music teacher. In 1903 she transferred to Goshen College with her husband and continued there a number of years. Mrs. Jacobs is a well-known figure to younger alumni because she attends the annual alumni banquet whenever possible. May the first alumna in-

Oswin Gerber 37 is principal of the Kidron, Ohio, school and also teaches thirty-five pupils in grades 5-8. According to a recent letter he is enjoying his work very much.

Ira Amstutz 37 is teaching science at the Apple Creek, Ohio, high school. Forrest Burkholder x25 is principal of the school. Mr. and Mrs. Amstutz and their small child have moved to Apple Creek from Walnut Creek where Mr. Amstutz taught for the last few years.

Mr. and Mrs. William Ulmer (Vera Emmert x41) are now living at 1534 Lincolnway East, Mishawaka, Indiana. Mr. Ulmer is teaching chemistry in the Mishawaka high school.

Leonard Henard 41 is teaching English in the high school of Bowbells, North Dakota. He also holds the principal's position, coaches football, basketball, and track, is the senior class adviser, and an assistant in dramatics. Mr. Henard expresses satisfaction with his football team which won the first four games of the season, reached the regional semi-finals, and finally placed third in the northwest section of the state. Says Mr. Henard: "We have a splendid group of boys who respond in a most gratifying manner to standards of conduct and sportsmanship which I have inobtrusively introduced. Although they are in a 'tough' community and used to profanity in the speech of coach and squad, alike, they now apologize for an error such as that."

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Reist 04 (Lulu Greenawalt 04) have moved from their farm near Falfurrias, Texas, to a town residence in Premont. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Reist 38 (Ruth Sieber 38) have moved to the Reist eighty-acre farm. The abundant rains of the past summer have produced excellent crops of ensilage and other grain and forage crops. Mr. Reist filled his three large silos last fall and is milking sixteen cows. Their five-acre citrus grove is ripening a good crop of oranges and grapefruit.

Delilah Roth 38, of San Antonio, Texas, is enjoying her second year as teacher in the public schools of Sinton, Texas. She is active also in the Baptist Sunday School.

Orville T. Roth x40, formerly of San Antonio, Texas, was graduated in August, 1941, from the University of Texas with a degree in Chemical Engineering. Mr. Roth is employed in the laboratory of the Dow Chemical Company of Fremont, Texas, a concern engaged in manufacturing magnesium and a number of by-products, from soda water.

Betty Kate Lee x41 is completing her work for a high school teacher's license in English the second semester at Mississippi State Teacher's College, Lafayette, Mississippi.

L. S. Yoder, Bible student at Goshen College in 1904-05, is one of the ministers in the Mennonite congregation at Gulfport, Mississippi. He has a cabinet maker's shop at 1810 25th Ave., Gulfport.

Professor John Umble has just returned to the campus from his trip to Mexico and the southwest. He managed to regain some of his youthful appearance while on leave, and has even joined the boys in the dormitory where he expects to live until April when Mrs. Umble, who is enjoying the sunny south at 1608 19th Ave., Gulfport, Mississippi, expects to return home.

Goshen College and The Emergency

PRESIDENT MILLER

In these days the word "emergency" frequently appears in our vocabulary. The international tragedy is affecting all our lives and upsetting many of our plans. Education, too, is a part of this crisis. The event of December 7 set us thinking on certain definite issues.

In the first place, the lowering of the draft age and the speeding up program of calling men to camp meant that colleges would need to accelerate their academic program. Goshen announced such a program on January 9. In doing so the College brings to its students a number of distinct advantages.

First, men who are subject to draft when they reach the age of twenty will be able to complete the full college course in three years before reaching the draft age. In the second place, students who do not wish to speed up their college program will have additional time for work and earning. In the third place, students who wish to continue their graduate study will be able to complete undergraduate pre-professional programs and enter upon graduate study at an earlier date. The college thus hopes to serve its constituency and assist them to meet the needs of the wartime emergency which face all citizens of the country, old and young.

Again, "relief needs" arising out of this national emergency have been brought to the attention of our students and faculty. Our graduates and members of our faculty were already on relief duty in England and France and assisting in the Civilian Service Camps when the war broke out. But, those of us remaining on the campus needed to know and do more. In consequence we set up a Faculty-Student Emergency Service Committee to direct our thinking and channel our endeavors. This Service Committee consisting of three faculty members and four students has already inaugurated several worthwhile projects. Approximately 60 persons of our students and faculty are meeting weekly in First Aid classes and approximately 25 other young men are enrolled in a class to teach them how to fight fires. A series of bulletin board slogans are calling our attention regularly to ways in which we may save heat, light, water and food. Discussions are arranged through the Peace Society and through Chapel talks on religious, economic and social post-war problems. Our students have had an opportunity to show their willingness to serve in connection with the devastation caused in our city by the recent tornado.

The national emergency also affects the finances of the college. Our donations are good. But, food and other commodity prices have advanced very considerably during the year. There has been a loss of income on account of decreased enrollment. Under such circumstances it has been difficult to bring an expanding program to a halt. But, we have effected economies and sacrificed so that we hope to close the financial year without any deficit.

Our plans for the next academic year are well under way. All of our faculty will be employed either at the college or in some other activity of the Church program. Our solicitors are already busy showing likely young men and women why even in these times they should come to College. And, we have financial plans under way now which we feel will prepare us to meet the period of stringency that will surely follow the tremendous national expenditure of this present period.

We solicit the continued support of all friends of the College in prayer to the end that we may serve worthily in our time the young men and women entering our halls.

Improvements in The Student Work Program

Mr. Gingerich Appointed Director

Student labor contributes largely to the maintenance and operation of the Goshen College plant. In recent years more than fifty per cent of our resident students have paid for part of their expenses by working on the campus.

In line with President Miller's policy of streamlining administrative procedures to provide greater efficiency in management and maximum benefit to students, certain important changes are being made in the student work program next year. Wage increases will be effected for all student labor. A wage scale based upon the skill required to do the job will be worked out. In certain instances a part of a student's earnings will be given to him in cash.

A daily check will be made on all student work and all work will be rated according to a pre-determined standard. The work rating will be based upon the cooperation of the worker and the quality of work done. Such ratings will be indications of individual achievement and should be valuable to the student in securing employment after leaving college.

Mr. Roman Gingerich, athletic director at

Goshen College, has been appointed by President Miller to supervise the new work program. He has already visited Park College, Parkville, Missouri, and Emmanuel Missionary College, Berrien Springs, Michigan, schools which carry on an extensive student work program. Park College requires all students regardless of means to work twelve hours a week on the campus.

Beside the financial benefit received, taking part in such a program is valuable to the student in forming habits of industry, efficiency and thrift; in building up an attitude of self criticism; in cultivating skills and aptitudes; in developing leadership ability; and in establishing a respect for labor proper to a democratic, Christian order of society.

The Ad Building Improvement

For the past several years the College Administration has been following a policy of making needed repairs on college buildings as rapidly as funds can be gathered for such purposes. New equipment in the Home Economics rooms, new quarters for the business office, a students' lounge, improved administrative offices, the new Adelphian Hall in the basement of the Administration building, and the Bookstore-Snack Shop are all the results of this policy. Most of the money used in these projects came from alumni.

One much needed improvement has not been made for lack of funds. Recently after returning from a visit to a sister college, President Miller remarked: "The one depressing thing about the Administration Building which always strikes me unfavorably, is the shabbiness of the halls and stairs. They give visitors and new students the wrong impression about Goshen College. We must do something to improve their appearance. I believe that our alumni friends would help us if they were told about the need."

As a result of the President's conviction, the Alumni Executive Committee and the College Administrative officers met on March 4 to consider possible plans for securing the necessary funds. After surveying the record of alumni contributions since September 1, 1940, the Committee decided to make the following proposal to the alumni:

> That, if you will give us $2,000 between now and Commencement time we will be able to take care of the operating budget for that period and also have enough money to make the necessary improvements in the Ad Building during the summer vacation.

The Alumni budget for the current year was set at $5,000 last October. To date you have sent us $2,289.29. That leaves $2,710.71 to complete this fiscal year. A quick glance at the statement of monthly contributions on this page will tell you how your gifts have been coming in.

Can you visualize new tile-tex in an impressive marble pattern on the front hall and basement floors of the Ad Building, and new tile-tex stairways that will not creak? A contractor has given estimates and assured us that he can do the job during the intersession.

An acceleration of your regular gifts, making them available by Commencement, May 18, will make this possible. To date only one-fifth of last year's donors have sent in their contributions. Why not get your check book and send in your gift today?

Two methods are being used to acquaint alumni with this need: (1) Letters have been sent to a large number of former donors who have not yet contributed this year, and (2) this bulletin is being mailed to all alumni. We believe you will want to help Goshen College go forward.

Commencement Advanced

Since Commencement activities have been advanced three weeks due to the acceleration program, you should make plans now to come to Goshen the week-end of May 15-18.

The Senior Class will present their program on Friday evening, May 15. Due to the present emergency the class is somewhat smaller than last year. However, the following applications have been received for degrees and diplomas: B. A., 28; B. S. in Education, 19; Th. B., 1; and two-year elementary teacher training, 16; total, 68.

Literary reunions are scheduled for Saturday forenoon and the alumni banquet for Saturday evening, May 16. The Alumni Executive Committee is negotiating for an outstanding speaker, someone who has recently returned from Europe. Final plans will be announced in the May Alumni News-Letter.

The a cappella chorus will give a program of sacred music on Sunday afternoon, May 17. At 8 o'clock that evening, President Miller will deliver the Baccalaureate address.

Canadian alumni will be interested to know that Rev. John McNicol, D. D., Principal of the Toronto Bible College, Toronto, Ontario, has been secured to speak at Commencement, May 18. Dr. McNicol comes to us highly recommended as a Bible teacher and sincere Christian man. In 1902 he was called to teach "English Bible" in what was then Toronto Bible Training Institute. Eight years later he became Principal of the Institute. During his period of service the student body has grown from 76 in 1910 to 365 in 1938. A large number of Mennonite young people have attended Toronto Bible College, including some ministers, missionaries and other church workers.

Teacher Demand Increased

Goshen Offers Accredited Training

SILAS HERTZLER, Ph. D.,
Director of Teacher Training

The teacher education program at Goshen College is constantly being strengthened. In 1940 the Indiana State Department of Education granted Goshen the privilege of giving the complete four-year elementary teacher training program leading to the B. S. in Education degrees. In March 1941 the college was accredited by the North Central Association. This included re-accreditment for the training of high school as well as elementary school teachers. During the present school year the Indiana State Board of Education sent a special committee to the college, and on its recommendation granted permanent accreditment for all teacher training purposes. Other states recognize Indiana accreditment, so that our work is now accepted for teacher training purposes in every state from which Goshen College students come.

The present national emergency affords splendid opportunities for securing teaching positions. The shortage of prepared teachers is becoming so acute that not only fully prepared, but also partially prepared teachers, are being called upon for service. For the first time in many years, employing officials are coming to the college with urgent requests for teachers. In the last month, two of our 1942 seniors were granted temporary permits and are teaching in Elkhart County high schools.

Illinois, Ohio, and Indiana, and many other states, are short of teachers, particularly in the elementary field. This is also true, in such high school fields as mathematics, science, commerce, music, physical education, Latin, art, agriculture, industrial arts, and library science. Home Economics teachers are in demand. English, History, and social science teachers are needed, too, but these fields have recently been so overcrowded that enough teachers have so far been available.

Many states have been moving rapidly toward a four-year degree program for the education of elementary school teachers. Indiana and Pennsylvania already require degrees before an elementary certificate can be granted. Michigan requires four years of college work for the granting of an elementary license for out-of-state students. In Ohio permits good for one year may be granted until September 1, 1942, on the basis of two years of college work. After that date permits may be issued on three years of college work. These permits are renewable upon presentation of twelve semester hours of further teacher training work. This must be continued annually until a degree is earned. By September 1, 1945, four years of work will be required for licenses in Ohio. Of the states in the territory from which many Goshen College students come only Illinois, Iowa and Kansas now grant licenses on the basis of two years of college education.

Teacher education is one of the fields emphasized at Goshen College because teaching is a profession in which the Christian can influence the lives of children for good. Each teacher educated at Goshen College strives to make teaching a means of sharing good things with others rather than merely to make a living.

What Goshen Alumni Say About Their Alma Mater

For nearly half a century the Liberal Arts program of Goshen College has been preparing Christian students for Christian service. Many of the 6,509 young people who have matriculated at Goshen are now ministers of the Gospel; many are home or foreign missionaries. A large proportion of them are engaged in teaching, their positions ranging from the rural school to a professorship in a graduate school of Harvard University. Others are homemakers, war relief workers, lawyers, doctors, nurses, engineers, physicists, technicians, farmers, and business executives. Others enjoy positions of trust and honor in the government service. Wherever worthy tasks challenge American youth, in this or in foreign lands, Goshen alumni carry the spirit of their college motto, "Culture for Service."

Goshen alumni are enthusiastic about their Alma Mater as the following testimonies indicate:

''Upon entering the University of Detroit in 1940 after spending two years at Goshen, I questioned whether my training in engineering fundamentals was sufficient to enable me to keep abreast of my classmates. After spending three semesters in engineering school, I find that my pre-engineering training at Goshen College was of inestimable value for two principle reasons: (1) Sufficient 'grounding' in mathematics and science was provided, and (2) moral and religious values of a liberal education were properly emphasized. In addition, Goshen College served as a 'stepping stone' from high school to a strenuous course in a larger university.''

George Falb, x42
Engineering Student
Detroit University.

''I believe Goshen College has the physical equipment and trained personnel on its teaching staff to give a thorough basic training to students expecting to enter medicine. The College with the personal contact of the student and teacher is well fitted to teach the student how to study, the most important factor in undergraduate work.''

Clifford F. Brunk, M.D., '15
Detroit, Michigan

''I believe the relation between training received at Goshen College and my present occupation is more than wholly theoretical. The courses offered in business and economics, plus a well selected program of studies in other fields, can be applied even by a shoe salesman. The opportunity of expression in campus activities was much appreciated as was also the privilege of being among people who lived and taught the Christian philosophy or way of life.''

A. P. Hallman, '31
Salesman for Miller-Hess Shoe Co.
Akron, Pa.

''The Home Economics teacher, dealing almost entirely with girls, is apt to become advisor and confidante as well as instructor. While the Home Economics Department at Goshen was preparing me for the latter, participation in various organizations was giving me valuable training for my role as advisor. The Christian atmosphere and high ideals better fitted me to help the girls formulate their own standards and ideals.''

Winifred Nelson Beechy, '38
Instructor in Home Economics
Columbus, Ohio

''Goshen College provides an environment which stimulates both students and teachers to inquire seriously into the meaning of life and to discover worthy ends toward which human endeavor should be moving. The 'give and take' that accompanied inquiry and discussion in the class rooms and in the various student activities was excellent preparation for life; in fact, it was life. As a result of such activity, a point of view developed in my own thinking which has enabled me to find satisfaction in the teaching profession.''

Samuel Burkhard, Ph. D., '11
Head of the Dept. of Education
Arizona State Teachers College
Tempe, Arizona

''To be without the training that I received while attending Goshen College I feel would be quite a handicap to me as an editor of a church periodical. The culture and ideals of the College, the classroom training, the social contacts on the campus, and the opportunity of worshipping with many Mennonite congregations through chorus and Gospel team trips ___all these have become an invaluable asset to my work. I do not know how I could have invested the money that was spent for training at Goshen College in a way that would have better prepared me for my work.''

Ellrose D. Zook, '33
Editor of S. S. Literature
Scottdale, Pa.

''The Christian training which I recevied at Goshen College has proved a very adequate foundation for graduate study and for work in the field of teaching. I believe a Christ-centered education, such as Goshen has always sought to maintain, is more important today than ever before.''

Paton Yoder, Ph. D., '35
Head of Department of History
Westmont College
Los Angeles, California

'' 'A man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth.' The study, association, and experience which is enjoyed at a Christian College helps one to know true values and gives one a broader view of life regardless of the vocation taken up after leaving school. A person is compensated many times for the effort, time, and money spent for a College education.''

C. G. Smucker, '28
Farmer
West Liberty, Ohio

''I have found Goshen College to be a crossroads of our Church. There I met and learned to appreciate our leaders, secured a conservative interpretation of Scripture, and learned to appreciate the missionary and educational activities of the church. The consecrated efforts of the faculty led me to further dedicate myself to whatever the Lord would call me to do.''

Lester T. Hershey, '36
Former Relief Worker and Pastor of the Mexican Mennonite Mission, Chicago.

''Each day I realize and appreciate more the value of my training at Goshen College. It has given me a background upon which to stand, and a faith in God enabling me to meet my tasks as a Christian soldier of the Cross.''

The Bible School of Goshen College Offers Several Types of Preparation

PURPOSE

The purpose of Goshen College Bible School is to offer sound and thorough Bible training under evangelical Mennonite teachers. Goshen College believes that the current spiritual need of the world is very great and that only the Word of God has the answer to this need. The Gospel of Jesus Christ is the center of the Bible School curriculum at Goshen.

CHARACTER OF PREPARATION

The class work in the Bible School is intended to be systematic and thorough, fully equivalent to that of the other divisions of the College. In addition to formal classes, the students participate in devotional meetings, prayer meetings, Sunday School work, Gospel teams, mission and jail services, literature distribution, religious surveys and home visitation. Students are free to counsel with the President, the Religious Counsellor, or with any member of the faculty.

ONE YEAR CHRISTIAN WORKERS' COURSE

For those who do not find it possible to attend college for several years, a one-year course is provided to prepare further those lay workers who desire to have the advantages of systematic Bible study.

THE NEW FIVE YEAR TH. B. COURSE

In 1933 Goshen College set up a four-year Th. B. course. Since that time twenty-five young people have graduated from this course. About a third of these graduates are serving as Mennonite ministers (ordained or licensed) in the United States, and four are on the foreign field. The others are still students, or are missionaries in the home field, church school teachers, lay workers, homemakers or in relief work. Two other students who nearly met the Th. B. requirements are also licensed ministers in active work in the Mennonite Church.

It became evident, however, that the four-year Th. B. course was not entirely serving as a terminal course for Mennonite young people, since a number of young men have been attending seminaries of other denominations. Hence, a more adequate course seemed necessary.

Hesston College and Bible School has been cooperating informally with Goshen College for a number of years. Several Bible students from Hesston have transferred to Goshen to complete their preparation and to secure the Th. B. degree. The inauguration of a more complete course seemed the proper time for Hesston and Goshen to enter into a formal agreement in which the two schools cooperate in offering five years of training leading to the Th. B. degree. This work consists of two years of general education, followed by three years of Bible training. The last two years of the course will be offered only at Goshen, but both schools are offering the first three years.

This new, five-year Bible course, which will be initiated in September 1942, is intended to be a terminal course for those preparing for service in the Mennonite Church; the average student will no longer need to plan to go elsewhere after securing the Th. B. from Goshen College. To make possible attendance for a five-year period, generous scholarship grants have been provided. Details may be secured by writing to President E. E. Miller, Goshen College, Goshen, Indiana.

Read the following testimonies and decide now to prepare for service by securing your full training in a Mennonite College.

A student in the Christian Workers' Course says:

"I am very grateful indeed that in the Bible School of Goshen College a Christian Workers' Course is offered. Valuable beyond measure are the subjects which are taught in this course. We, as Christian workers, want to be prepared for better service for our Master, and I feel that the Lord has certainly led me to the right place in order to receive this preparation."

Martha Horst
St. Jacobs, Ontario

A foreign Missionary writes:

"Through systematic Bible study and the original language study, some of the treasures of God and His will have been opened up to me. The practical courses have aided me in understanding the problems of the Church in presenting the Gospel in the most effective methods. With this added knowledge, and a clearer vision of Christ and of the task of the Church, there comes to me a greater responsibility in helping to promote Christ's kingdom on earth." (written 1941)

General Villegas, F.C.O.
Ella May Miller '41
Argentina, South America

A city missionary writes:

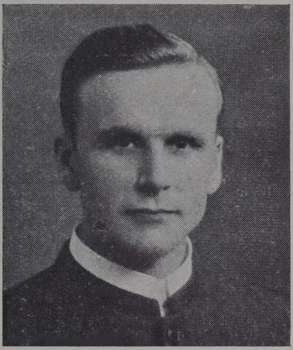
"Of course it is impossible for me to express my appreciation of the Th. B. Course in fifty words. I was always afraid that going to college was going to be the undoing of my faith, but at the end of my training I found that I had a greater conception of God than was mine before going to college. I am happy to testify that the theology of Goshen College is fundamental and evangelical. There ought to be a growing interest in preparation for the ministry on the part of Christian young men."

Raymond M. Yoder '38
1907 South Union Avenue
Chicago, Illinois

A Th. B. student at Goshen College says:

"Here at Goshen College, under the guidance of the Bible faculty, Bible study takes on new proportions. One feels a difference between studying the dead facts of history and science and studying the living Word of God. Our gracious God is more fully revealed and his Gospel becomes the power unto salvation."

Clayton Beyler '43
Protection, Kansas



A country pastor says:

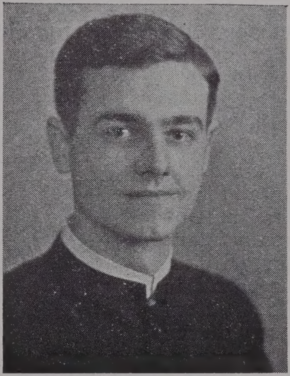
"Because of the spiritual enrichment, the improved understanding of the Word, and more intimate knowledge of the Christ of the Word which I enjoyed in my work in the Bachelor of Theology Course at Goshen College, I shall always consider that a mountain top experience in my spiritual life."

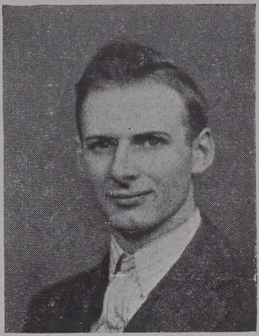
Ezra Beachy '34
Pinckney, Michigan

A seminary student testifies:

"Christian youth needs to be equipped with a thorough knowledge of the Bible for personal Christian living and for spiritual leadership in our chaotic world. The Th. B. curriculum has served to enlarge my conception of God, deepen my understanding of His Word, increase my love for the church, and broaden my vision of opportunities for Christian service."

Howard Charles '40
R. 3
Lititz, Pennsylvania





Another Th. B. student at Goshen writes:

"I appreciate Goshen's emphasis of getting beneath the superstructure of Christian thinking, back to the original sources. Back to Jesus, back to Paul, back to the prophets, back to an understanding of their languages, of their total life and message—there I find harmony; there I find personal peace and satisfaction."

Students Enjoy Friendliness Of Bookstore and Snack Shop

Nelson Springer, Manager

Much to the dismay of the librarian the old reading room on the main floor of the Administration Building was formerly used by the students as a "stopping-off place" between classes, after meals, and at odd moments throughout the day. When the library moved to its new quarters, students asked each other, "Where will we go for a chat now?" They are answered by the common expression of present students: "Let's stop at the Snack Shop for a little while."

In two years of operation the combined Bookstore and Snack Shop has made so large a place for itself on the campus that many have wondered how the students endured campus life without its services. A hurried glance at the inventory of the Bookstore—the older of these two campus partners—reveals a wide range of merchandise. Of course, there are regular school and office supplies, such as paper, pencils, ink, notebook covers, paper clips, and other items used daily by college people. In addition, the store offers for sale a complete line of Sheaffer pens and pencils, a limited assortment of theological and inspirational books, Bibles, mottoes, greeting cards, Kodak films, athletic supplies, soap, and many other items from combs to shoestrings. All textbooks used in the various courses are ordered through the Bookstore. Along with its regular service of selling, the Bookstore serves the faculty and students by sorting and delivering all mail addressed to the campus, determining rates of postage for outgoing packages and letters, and computing fees for express packages.

Thoughts of the junior partner—the Snack Shop—suggest hamburgers, toasted sandwiches, soft drinks, ice cream, milk shakes, and candy. Its menu announces that these, its principal offerings, are supplemented by other refreshments belonging to a light lunch stand.

There is another member of the firm—the ping pong room—whose service is not unimportant, in spite of the fact that it has no contribution to make to the commercial life of the institution. Scarred tables and worn floors give only a hint of the many games won and lost by beginners, occasional players, and expert artists in their enjoyment of this sport.

These three—Bookstore, Snack Shop, and ping pong room—are under student management, supervised by the Business Office. They occupy the western end of the Administration Building basement. Booths, counters, and shelves in the Bookstore and Snack Shop present a cheery color scheme of red, ivory, and black. Staring windows are made attractive by draperies and potted plants. But the physical setup is secondary to the spirit of those who use and enjoy the facilities of these rooms, which make the Bookstore and Snack Shop a valuable asset to the Goshen College campus.

ALUMNI REUNION OF 1942

Rev. William A. Stoltzfus 17, president of the American College for Women at Beirut, Lebanon, will be the principal speaker at the 1942 reunion. President Stoltzfus recently returned from his field of service by way of India and the Pacific Ocean. He had several narrow escapes in his thrilling journey through the war stricken area. He should have a message of absorbing interest from the oriental hot spots of war activity.

President Ernest E. Miller, also a member of the Class of 1917, will be toastmaster.

Unusual interest has been expressed by the alumni in the coming reunion to be held May 16 at 6:00 p.m. A number of the classes whose five and ten years' anniversary falls on this date are planning to hold special reunions.

The class of 1917 is celebrating its twenty-fifth anniversary by giving a gift to the College. It is hoped that this will start a tradition for twenty-fifth annual reunions.

The class of 1922 is celebrating its twentieth anniversary of graduation by returning to the campus in a body. This class will be represented on the alumni program by Dr. Allen Y. King, rising young educator in Ohio. Florence E. Bender was active in promoting the 1922 class reunion.

C. P. Martin 27, president of the Alumni Association, is interested in securing a full representation of the members of his class and an interesting reunion is expected.

The class of 1932 also is planning a large reunion and will be represented on the program with a toast by Dr. Robert E. Bender, of Elkhart. Professor Jacob Sudermann has been active in promoting the reunion of the class of 1932.

Changes in the nature and conduct of the program will mean that the evening will be much shorter than usual to provide more time for informal conversation after the program.

ALUMNI RESPONSE GRATIFYING

The list of donors to the Alumni Division of the Goshen College Accreditment Plan shows continued interest by alumni in helping to maintain membership in the North Central Association.

An added reason for early giving by alumni was presented in a letter recently mailed to alumni by the alumni secretary. This letter contained the President's plan for making some much needed improvements on the stairways and halls of the Administration Building. There is still time to send in that contribution now in order to make possible the needed improvements where countless thousands of "shoes, shoes, shoes" have worn out the steps and floor coverings.

MRS. BINKELE RESIGNS

Mrs. Otto Binkele (Stella Kauffman 34) has resigned as librarian at Goshen College. She finished her period of service at the College at the close of the first semester to devote her time to housekeeping. Mr. Binkele 33, who had been doing graduate work in history at Indiana University and who would have received the Master's Degree in June, was elected instructor in history in the high school at Rossville, Vermilion County, Illinois, in January and began his duties at the beginning of the second semester. Mr. and Mrs. Binkele are living at Rossville, a town of 1,500 people.

The College has employed Mrs. Paul Erb (Alta Mae Eby 12) as librarian for the remainder of the school year.

J. B. Cressman 21, of Kitchener, Ontario, who has been doing graduate work in library science at the University of Michigan during the current year and who served as instructor in English at the College several years ago, will assume his duties as College librarian at the beginning of the Summer Session.

Y.P.C.A. ELECTS OFFICERS

At the regular meeting of the Y.M. and Y.W. on March 12, the following officers were elected for the coming year: Russell Krabill 43, Wayland, Iowa, president of the Y.M.C.A.; Verna Burkholder 43, formerly of Newville, Pennsylvania, president of the Y.W. The other Y.M. officers elected were: Secretary, Don McCammon, Manson, Iowa; Treasurer, Merle Grasse, Chalfont, Pennsylvania.

Installation of new officers took place on April 9.

SPRING REVIVAL MEETINGS AT THE COLLEGE

E. M. Yost, pastor of the Mennonite Church of Greensburg, Kansas, conducted a series of meetings with the College congregation beginning March 25 and continuing through March 31. A special series of meetings was held for the student body soon after the beginning of school last fall. The recent meetings were more specially for the College congregation but the student body participated both by special prayer services and attendance. Before the meetings began about a dozen juniors in the Sunday school had decided to give their hearts to the Master at a service held specially for them several Sundays previous. One special object of this series of meetings was to encourage Mennonite families who are living in and near the city to unite with the College congregation. Partly as a result of these meetings and visitation work in connection with them twelve people handed their letters to the pastor and united with the College congregation. The excellent sermons and strong Christian spirit of the evangelist were deeply appreciated both by the congregation and the student body.

EDITORIAL CHAT

Recently an alumnus at Kidron, Ohio, sent to the office of the Alumni Association a "notice of change of address." This required only a minute of his time and a one-cent stamp. If he had not notified us, the post office would have given us the "notice of change of address" but the alumnus would have missed one NEWS-LETTER and it would have cost us two cents. The Alumni Association appreciates this member's thoughtfulness. Several times recently alumni have inquired why they are not receiving their ALUMNI NEWS-LETTER. Usually there is only one reason: we do not have your complete mailing address. Second class mail can reach you only if we have your complete street address or rural route number.

These are times particularly trying for the Christian ministry. Several times recently the editor has noticed in denominational periodicals an appeal for a less critical attitude toward the minister and a more sympathetic appreciation of his problems. The Christian ministry is based on Scripture, "Faith cometh by hearing." An individual who criticizes his minister will reap leanness of soul and barrenness of spirit. A community that criticizes its ministers will reap declining church attendance, Sunday amusements and lowered moral standards. A congregation that criticizes its minister will reap empty pews and finally a neglected cemetery. A home that criticizes the minister will reap a harvest of heartaches after the children grow up. Stand by the minister! Your minister!

CALLED TO MINISTRY

Howard Zehr 41 has accepted a call to the pastorate of the Freeport, Illinois, Mennonite Church. Mr. Zehr completed the courses leading to the B.A. and Th.B. degrees last August and since that time has been enrolled as a student in the Northern Baptist Seminary in Chicago. He was ordained at Freeport on April 19. He will finish his year at the Seminary and also fill the pulpit at Freeport each Sunday.

NEW BOOK IN THE FIELD OF MENNONITE HISTORY

The Mennonite Publishing House of Scottdale, Pennsylvania, has printed a history, The Mennonites of Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania, written by Dr. Edward Yoder, former professor of Classical languages at Goshen College. Part of it was originally prepared as a paper to be read at a meeting held at Scottdale, Pennsylvania, in November, 1940, commemorating the one hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the coming of the Mennonites into southwestern Pennsylvania. Later it was enlarged and printed as an article in the Mennonite Quarterly Review.

The Scottdale Mennonite congregation has sponsored the reprinting of this article with the addition of some pictures and a map. The book gives much interesting information concerning the early Mennonite settlements in southwestern Pennsylvania and concerning the Scottdale congregation in particular. The book is bound in durable paper cover and may be ordered from the Mennonite Publishing House at Scottdale, Pennsylvania. Price, twenty-five cents per copy.

COLLEGE CHORUSES MAKE EASTER TOUR

On account of the accelerated program, the Easter recess was shortened, beginning at noon Friday, April 3, following a special Good Friday chapel service, and ending Monday morning, April 6. The Men's Chorus under the direction of Walter E. Yoder made a tour of Mennonite communities in Illinois. Their itinerary included programs at the following points: Flanagan, April 3, morning; Hopedale, April 3, evening; Roanoke, April 4, evening; Morton, April 5, Easter Sunrise Service; Tiskilwa, April 5, afternoon; Sterling, April 5, evening; WMBI, April 6, noon; Chicago Home Mission, April 6, evening.

The Collegiate Chorus under the direction of Professor Paul Erb sang at Kouts, Indiana, April 3, evening; Kokomo, April 4, evening; Ft. Wayne Mission, April 5, morning; Leo, April 5, afternoon; and at the Emma Church north of Topeka, April 5, evening.

Both choruses returned to the campus pleased with their reception in the various communities and enthusiastic about the advantages of a closer contact with the congregations visited.

CHICAGO ALUMNI MEET

The Chicago branch of the Goshen College Alumni Association held its thirty-fourth annual dinner on March 14 at the Y.W.C.A. building in Chicago. President Ernest E. Miller 17 gave the principal address, speaking on "Goshen College and the Emergency." Music was furnished by the Byler quartet from the College. C. P. Martin 27, of Elkhart, president of the Goshen College Alumni Association, also attended the meeting as a representative of the alumni association and spoke informally on the College and the work of the association.

Officers for the past year were: John Thut 23, president; Raymond Yoder 38, vice-president; and Mrs. Floyd Shore (Viola Krabill), secretary-treasurer. The reception committee was Jonathan Kurtz 01, Mrs. Frank D. King (Laura Smith x18), and Mrs. C. S. Morse (Margaret Anderson 22).

Officers elected for the coming year were: president, Lester Hershey 36, of 1907 S. Union Avenue, Chicago; vice-president, Dr. Elmer Landis x23, of 107 Tennessee Street, Gary, Indiana; and secretary-treasurer, Bertha Leaman 21, of Greenwood Avenue, Chicago.

WESTERN OHIO ALUMNI REUNION

An alumni dinner for western Ohio, including the alumni from Fulton County, Allen County, Logan and Champaign counties, and Columbus, was held at the Mennonite Orphans' Home on Friday evening, March 20. Atlee Beechy 31, of Columbus, served as toastmaster for the evening. After a very fine dinner, the following program was rendered: Address of Welcome, Loren King 31, superintendent of the Orphans' Home; Music by Byler quartet; Address: "Goshen College and the Emergency," President E. E. Miller 17; Music by Byler quartet.

Sixty-five alumni participated in the dinner and the spirit manifested was typical of a Goshen College group. The group decided to make this dinner an annual event and B. Frank Byler was unanimously elected chairman for next year.

The following committees were responsible for making the West Liberty dinner a success:

Committee on arrangements: Loren King 31, chairman; Mrs. Chauncey Smucker (Pearl Detweiler 28), Mrs. Irvin Kauffman (Dorcas Yoder x30), John L. Yoder 10, Phyllis Hartzler 39.

Entertainment Committee: B. Frank Byler 40, chairman; Elizabeth Plank x40, Myriam Sieber 42.

MEETING OF EASTERN ALUMNI

The annual dinner of Eastern Pennsylvania alumni was held on Friday evening, April 11, at the General Sutter Hotel in Lititz, Pennsylvania. After eating a delightful dinner together the group enjoyed a program. Dwight Yoder 37 was toastmaster. Dr. Henry A. Fast spoke on "The C.P.S. Program" and President Ernest E. Miller of the College spoke on "Goshen College and the Emergency." Ralph Shenk x28 sang a baritone solo. The newly elected officers are Howard Musselman 29 of Orrtanna, Pennsylvania, chairman; Forrest Kanagy 30 of Biglerville, Pennsylvania, secretary-treasurer. The officers for the past year were: Abram Hallman 31, Akron, Pennsylvania, chairman; and George Bishop x34, Doylestown, Pennsylvania, secretary-treasurer.

Forty-nine members of the Alumni Association were present for the 1942 meeting.

NOTES ON THE INDIA MISSION GLEANED FROM THE "MISSION SUPPLEMENT"

In the April, 1942 issue of the "Mission Supplement" of the Gospel Herald, Edwin I. Weaver 30 writes an interesting article on the dedication of the little brick church, a new building erected at Drug. One half of the funds for this building was raised by the Indian churches and the other half was given by friends through the Mission Board. The total cost of the church was two thousand three hundred rupees. Bishop George J. Lapp 02 preached the dedicatory sermon and Bishop J. D. Graber 25 officially dedicated the structure to the worship of God.

The building faces a good road on which hundreds of people pass daily, on Bazaar days the number often running into thousands. The nearest Christian church is eighteen miles away. Just across the road is a little temple to an Indian "god," a stone painted red with vermilion, placed at the foot of a sacred pipal tree long since dead, and housed by a little tin shack with an iron gate only about four by four in size. But even educated people and officers come here to give an offering of flowers or cocoanuts to the "god." Evidently the work is not ended now that the church is built and dedicated but in reality is only beginning. These Indian missionaries need our prayers.

The same issue of the "Mission Supplement" gives interesting articles by Sarah Lapp, Balodgahan; Bishop J. D. Graber 25, Sundarganj; Dr. Jonathan G. Yoder 27, Dhamtari Medical Station; Wilbur Hostetler 30, Ghatula; A. C. Brunk 12, Shantipur; and Fannie Lapp, Dondi.

One matter of deep concern to the missionaries is the short rice crop—the food crop that means the difference between life and starvation for many of India's millions. Sister Lapp writes: "There will be much suffering again as the foodstuffs and clothing have gone up in prices very much."

DR. M. C. LEHMAN 04, EUROPEAN RELIEF WORKER, TO RETURN

The Gospel Herald for March 26 carried the following item under the heading Message from Brother M. C. Lehman: "Sumner Welles, Under-Secretary of State, has informed Bro. Orie O. Miller that a telegram dated March 6 and sent via Bern, Switzerland, contains a message from Brother M. C. Lehman, Mennonite relief worker now in Germany. Bro. Lehman is, according to his own report, in good health and expects to accompany the embassy staff to America. This is the first direct message from Brother Lehman since the entrance of the United States into the war."

It is hoped that Dr. Lehman can return in time for Commencement in May.

ALUMNUS TO MANAGE MENNONITE BOOK STORE

Joseph Garber 41, formerly of Lititz, Pennsylvania, is to be manager of a retail book store to be opened in Goshen by the Mennonite Publishing House. He and Mrs. Garber (Thelma Hostetler 40), formerly of West Liberty, Ohio, moved into one of the college apartments on April 1.

The new store will be located at 119 East Lincoln Street, Goshen, in the store room formerly occupied by the Solari Tobacco Company. It is excellently situated, as East Lincoln is traversed constantly by Middlebury and Shipshewana Mennonites. The store will handle books, mottoes, stationery and subscriptions for Mennonite periodicals and publications.

This is the sixth retail store under the Mennonite Publishing House. Four are in Pennsylvania, in Scottdale, New Holland, Lancaster, and Souderton, and a fifth is in a fine new building in Kitchener, Ontario.

SABBATICAL LEAVE FOR DR. WITMER

Dr. and Mrs. S. W. Witmer 14 (Sana Troyer 14) and daughter Mildred 42 have been spending the second semester in Mexico. They left in January and went directly to Mexico City and from there to Cuernavaca and Taxco. In March they returned as far as Valles and after spending some time there returned to Monterrey where they spent the fore part of April. From all reports, they have been enjoying a grand vacation, full of study, sight seeing, and adventure. They are expected to return to Goshen in time for Commencement. Dr. Witmer will teach in the Inter-Session May 19 to June 6.

C.P.S. BOYS HELP CLEAN UP DEBRIS FOLLOWING GOSHEN TORNADO

During the latter part of March and early April men from the C.P.S. camps helped to clean up and demolish wrecked and partly wrecked homes in the southeastern part of Goshen. The first week thirty men from the Bluffton C.P.S. Camp helped with this work. During this time they were quartered in the basement of the Eighth Street Mennonite Church.

The next week only ten could be spared from the work at the Bluffton Camp. They were quartered in Coffman Hall and boarded in the kitchenette annex of Kulp Hall dining room. Women of the various Mennonite and Amish congregations in and around Goshen supplied the food and cooked the meals for the boys. The industry and thoroughness with which the men did their work aroused much favorable comment in the city.

Immediately after the tornado and before the demolition work was properly organized, men from the College served as guards in the devastated region and helped to direct the excessively heavy traffic of out-of-town sight-seers.

MENNONITE HISTORICAL BULLETIN

At a recent meeting of the Mennonite Historical Committee a number of important decisions were made: (1) The Bulletin shall now be published four times a year instead of twice a year as heretofore, beginning with the present issue. (2) The editors for the coming two years shall be Dr. John C. Wenger 34 and Dr. Edward Yoder, of Scottdale, Pennsylvania, the other members of the Historical Committee being associate editors. (3) There shall be two types of membership in the Mennonite Historical Association: the regular membership as heretofore shall be one dollar a year, and for those who wish to contribute more largely to the historical work of the Association there shall be available a sustaining membership at five dollars a year.

The March number of the Mennonite Historical Bulletin which came from the press several weeks ago contains a number of interesting articles including, "Pioneer Mennonite Students at Ada, Ohio" by Sylvanus Yoder, of Middlebury, Indiana.

STUDIES IN MENNONITE HISTORY

A series of six new studies edited by Dean Harold S. Bender 18, of the College, and designed for use in Civilian Public Service Camps, is being published by the Mennonite Central Committee. The general title of the series is Mennonites And Their Heritage. Following is the title and editor of each study in the series:

1. Mennonite Origins in Europe, Harold S. Bender
2. Mennonites in America, C. Henry Smith
3. Our Mennonite Heritage, Edward Yoder
4. Our Mission as a Church of Christ, Ed. G. Kaufman
5. Christian Relationships to State and Community, Guy F. Hershberger
6. Life and Service in the Kingdom of God, P. C. Hiebert

More than eight hundred and fifty men now at work in Civilian Public Service camps are members of the various Mennonite and affiliated groups. Monthly cost of the camps plus the estimated service wages of the men now equals about $50,000. Civilian Public Service selectees spend about fifty hours' work per week. The men are eager to spend their leisure time in personal enrichment through study and recreation in every means of personal growth available. In all the camps the men have some form of educational program.

ANNALS OF CONESTOGA VALLEY

The above is the title of a new book of seven hundred and fourteen pages written by C. Z. Mast and R. E. Simpson, residents of the Conestoga Valley. Both of the authors are on familiar ground when they furnish their readers with this interesting narrative. The book may be ordered from C. Z. Mast of Elverson, Pennsylvania, author of the Mast Family History and of a large number of articles on subjects dealing with Mennonite History and the history of Mennonite families. The price is three dollars.

FORENSIC CONTESTS

The two freshman men's contests for the current year have been held with even more than the usual interest. As last year the contests were conducted as inter-society tilts between the Adelphian and Aurora Societies, each society entering three contestants after a preliminary elimination contest. THREATENED SHORTAGE OF ELEMENTARY TEACHERS

The Selective Service Act and the ease with which young people can secure employment is threatening a serious shortage of elementary teachers not only in Indiana but also in surrounding states. The Indiana state superintendent of public instruction has issued an appeal to the young people of the state to enroll in teacher training classes. The average number of new elementary teachers employed each year for the past twelve years is six hundred and twenty-two. Only two hundred and sixty-five seniors complete the elementary teacher training course in Indiana colleges this year.

The shortage of teachers already has induced the department of public instruction of the state of Indiana to waive some of the requirements for certification. Mrs. George Smith (Wilma Miller 37), formerly of Archbold, Ohio, has received an elementary teacher's license in Indiana and is teaching in a York Township school, Elkhart County. Mrs. Orval Gunden (Ann Wenger 38) has also received a teacher's certificate and is teaching at the Concord Township schools. Mrs. Roman Gingerich (Shirley Erb 39) is also being granted an elementary teacher training certificate although she has not completed certain specific Indiana requirements.

L. S. Weber 27, Tejedor 1087, Buenos Aires, writes under date of February 12 that ordinary mail from all points in North America has been very irregular. Beginning in February all mail has been carried on cargo vessels on a very slow and uncertain schedule. The Argentine post office department suggests that correspondents send as little mail as possible and that air mail service be used for important letters. He adds in the same letter that reports coming in from different sections where the tents are being used indicate that there is great interest in a suburban area in Bragado as well as in Trenque Lauquen. The South American missionaries are convinced that the tent meeting is the best way to introduce the Gospel message to the general public in South American towns.

L. S. Weber, Tejedor 1087, Buenos Aires, Argentina, referred to in a note above, writes again under date of March 14: "A few Gospel Heralds came through last week, but for about two months, no U. S. first class mail has come to our hands. We had a few letters from Canada, which took seven weeks to get here. Hence you will see the need of using air mail. There are tons of letters lying in our Central P. O. waiting for boats to carry them."

COMMENCEMENT 1942

Tire rationing and the employment situation arising out of the present unsettled state of world affairs had the effect of decreasing the Commencement crowds somewhat but most of the programs were attended by large and appreciative audiences.

Commencement season opened with the rendition of Gaul's "Holy City" sung by the College choruses under the direction of Professor Walter E. Yoder 33. Student soloists this year were: Warren Leatherman 43, Doylestown, Pennsylvania, tenor; Helen Hoover x43, New Paris, Indiana, soprano; Roy Roth 43, Morton, Illinois, bass; Elta Yoder 43, Goshen, Indiana, alto; David Byler 45, Lehighton, Pennsylvania, assisted with the tenor solos.

Both parts of the Senior Class program were held in the auditorium on account of the rain. The class sponsor was Professor Walter E. Yoder 33. The complete program with all the addresses was printed in the College Record.

Saturday, May 16, Alumni Day, saw a number of prominent alumni back on the campus. Although the attendance at the annual reunion dinner was not so large as in some former years, the enthusiasm and activities of some of the reunion classes made up for this deficiency.

The Class of 1917 celebrated their twenty-fifth anniversary by setting a new precedent. This reunion as well as that of the Classes of 1912 and 1922 deserves special mention and is written up more fully in another column.

At the reunion C. P. Martin 27, of Elkhart, President of the Alumni Association, had charge of the business meeting. Professor Walter E. Yoder 33, sponsor of the Class of 1942, introduced the class. Following their induction, Harold Mishler, of Davidsville, Pennsylvania, gave the response. Mr. Martin then introduced President Ernest E. Miller 17 as toastmaster. In the main address of the evening, President William A. Stoltzfus 17 recalled and presented in an interesting way what to him seemed the high lights of his own or of any college course. He showed himself an educational administrator keenly alive to the true values and objectives of higher education and gave a unique and interesting address.

Following President Stoltzfus's address, Dr. W. B. Christophel, of Mishawaka, toasted for the Class of 1902; Allen Y. King, of Cleveland, for the Class of 1922; and Dr. Robert E. Bender, of Elkhart, for the Class of 1932.

C. J. Gerber, principal of the Wakarusa High School and newly elected president of the Class of 1917, presented the twenty-fifth anniversary gift of his class, a much-needed water cooler for the first floor corridor of the Administration Building—a Copeland Pressure-Type Electric.

The Committee on arrangements for the banquet was Levi C. Hartzler 35, Miss Viola M. Good 39, Professor Olive G. Wyse 26, and Mrs. Carl Hostetler (La Verne Yoder) 34. Music was in charge of Professor Walter E. Yoder 33. The following quartet presented several numbers: Warren Leatherman 43, Doylestown, Pennsylvania, tenor; Harold Oyer 43, Eureka, Illinois, second tenor; John Leichty 42, Smithville, Ohio, bass; and Robert Studer 45, Smithville, Ohio, baritone.

On Sunday, May 17, alumni, students, and friends attended Sunday school, heard a sermon by Bishop S. C. Yoder in the morning, attended the chorus program rendered by the A Cappella Chorus under the direction of Professor Walter E. Yoder 33 in the afternoon, and in the evening attended the Baccalaureate service with a sermon by President Ernest E. Miller 17.

On Monday morning, May 18, a large congregation assembled for the final chapel and Y.P.C.A. devotional meeting. Following the College luncheon at noon there was a brief informal program in the auditorium at which representative speakers spoke briefly on the educational work in the Mennonite Church and its benefits. Several quartets assisted in the program.

The Commencement season closed with the graduation exercises on Monday evening. The Commencement address was delivered by Dr. John McNicol, principal of the Toronto Bible School, on the subject, "Abiding Things in a Changing World." President Ernest E. Miller conferred degrees on forty-eight candidates for the Bachelor's degree and granted five two-year elementary teacher training diplomas and six three-year teacher training diplomas. Twelve students also received diplomas for completing their secretarial course.

1942 CLASS REUNIONS

The size and importance of three of the class reunions entitle them to special mention: 1912, 1917, 1922.

CLASS OF 1912

Mrs. Paul Erb (Alta Mae Eby) deserves considerable credit for promoting the reunion of her class. Because the Academy was still an important part of the College in 1912 and because the College class itself was not large, the Academy and College classes held a joint reunion.

Mrs. Erb invited the members of the class to meet at her home in the College Apartments for tea in the afternoon. The following were present: Mrs. J. J. Smoker (Mary F. Landis), 920 South Fifth Street, Goshen; Mrs. Daniel S. Gerig (Ruth W. Landis), 1137 S. Eighth Street, Goshen; Louis L. Miller, 5742 Maryland Avenue, Chicago; Mrs. Edwin Amstutz (Zilla R. Soldner), Bluffton, Ohio; Mrs. Paul Erb (Alta Mae Eby), Goshen; and Anna E. Yoder, Goshen. Dr. Orus R. Yoder, of Michigan State Hospital, at Ypsilanti, Michigan, and Dr. Fred A. Conrad, of the University of Arizona at Tucson, sent greetings to the College and to the Class expressing their regret because they were unable to be present. The group met again in the evening at the general reunion in the College dining hall.

CLASS OF 1917

Twenty-fifth Anniversary Meeting

A well planned and interesting reunion was held by the Class of 1917. Fifteen members are left of the original nineteen. The president of the class, Archie Hartzler, of Belleville, Pennsylvania, passed on a few years after graduation while he was a medical student in Chicago. Two other members of the class are deceased, Jacob J. Miller, of Kalona, Iowa, and Douglas Wallgren, of Goshen.

Seven members of the class have seen service in foreign countries. Ruth Blosser, now Mrs. Ernest E. Miller, J. N. Kaufman, E. E. Miller, and John Warye have been Mennonite missionaries on the India field. Benjamin Gerig was for many years a member of the secretariat of the League of Nations at Geneva, Switzerland. Frank Stoltzfus is a missionary to Bulgaria, and William Stoltzfus, who has been serving in Syria, is now president of the Junior College for Women at Beirut, Lebanon.

The class met for a reunion at Henry's Tea Room, corner of Eighth and Madison Streets, at noon on May 16, Alumni Day. Several members of the class who could not be present sent greetings. Bishop J. N. Kaufman, of Foosland, Illinois, and Mrs. Henry Burkhard (Lydia LeFevre), of Fairfield, Pennsylvania, wrote letters and Dr. Benjamin Gerig, Washington, D. C., partly compensated for his absence by sending a long telegram and a donation of $25.00 to apply on the class gift. The following were present: Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Gerber (Florence Wenger 16), Wakarusa, Indiana; President and Mrs. Ernest E. Miller (Ruth Blosser), Goshen; President and Mrs. William A. Stoltzfus, Beirut, Lebanon; John F. Slabaugh, Goshen; and John Warye, Urbana, Ohio.

After spending a delightful social hour together, the group made a tour of the campus. From the standpoint of the College, one of the most important parts of the reunion was the business meeting. The class unanimously elected as president in place of Archie Hartzler, deceased, C. J. Gerber, principal of the Wakarusa High School. The class decided also to purchase a gift for the College in commemoration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of their graduation. They have purchased a Copeland Pressure-Type Electric Water Cooler. (By the way, this water cooler was delivered in the Ad Building on Monday morning, July 6, and a lovely present it is.) The class plans to place on the water cooler a small plate indicating that it is the twenty-fifth anniversary gift of the Class of 1917.

The group met again in the evening for the annual banquet and were joined at that time by Mr. and Mrs. Owen J. Yoder (Verda Yoder x21). The class also furnished two college presidents for the evening program: President Ernest E. Miller, toastmaster, and President William A. Stoltzfus, principal speaker of the evening.

CLASS OF 1922

(Editor's note: Reunions come and reunions go but few classes have spent more time in preparation for a reunion or have had a more enjoyable get-together than the Class of 1922 had on their twentieth anniversary this year. Since many of the things which they did might give ideas for future class reunions, the editor is printing the report of their reunion quite in detail. The class is paying for its own cut which is an added inducement for the editor to give them plenty of space. The editor wishes it were possible for him to share with you all the interesting letters that the class members wrote to their secretary, Miss Florence Bender, in response to her appeal for a one hundred per cent reunion. They tabulated the name, address, occupation, and children of the members of the class present at the reunion. Mrs. Vera Thornton Shields wrote an account of the afternoon tea and the secretary of the class, Miss Florence Bender, submits a report of the business meeting of the class held at the close of the annual banquet of the Alumni Association.)

The Afternoon Tea

The facts in the case, editorially speaking, were these:

Thirteen members of the Goshen College Class of 1922 attended a reunion tea held Saturday afternoon, May 16, at the home of Arthur Sprunger, a member of the class, at 611 South Seventh Street in Goshen. Mr. Sprunger was assisted in entertaining the guests by Mrs. Sprunger, and their daughter, Rebecca, aged 11, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bryner, of Goshen. Mr. Bryner is also a Class of 1922 graduate of the College.

The visitors, some of whom had not seen each other since their graduation, came from scattered points in Ohio, Michigan, Illinois, and Indiana. Several were accompanied by members of their families.

The afternoon was spent informally, with visiting, reading letters from members not able to be present, and taking pictures of the group. Most of those present later attended the alumni banquet at six o'clock Saturday evening in the dining hall at Goshen College.

But there was more to it than that. Here's how:

I arrived at three; Art met me at the door, Fred not far behind, and if it hadn't been for their familiar faces I might have turned and run for it. "Who are all these strangers?" I asked myself, after a panicky glance down the long living room. "I'll declare I don't know a soul!"

Summoning my courage, I advanced down the room.

"If I look as strange to them as they look to me, this is going to be jolly," said I to myself. "Wish I'd fallen back on that old one about not wanting to leave my husband (pretty good excuse, at that, for a newly-wed of nine weeks), and stayed home."

Then I saw Margaret Anderson Morse. And after a good look I saw she didn't look a day older. I was glad she brought Caroline, aged 9, with her. And that man standing there. If it isn't Ray Schertz! And he looks well-preserved too. The same was true of Mrs. Schertz, sitting near by. The Schertzes brought along pictures of their three young sons—a nice idea. Then Mahlon Krabill rose from the davenport, shook my hand, and introduced me to his sixteen-year-old son, who, by the way, looks very, very much like him. Mrs. Krabill (Ella Conrad) came, too, and their young daughter. This is better than I thought it was going to be, I opined.

And so it went, the whole pleasant afternoon. Howard Yoder was among those present, and Ethel, too. If it hadn't rained they couldn't have left those greenhouses. So we were glad it did. Georgiana Weddell Reasoner, still a resident of Goshen, didn't have far to come, and I was glad she didn't. Wilbur and Mary Miller came from Columbus, Ohio, conscience-free about using their tires because they could take their oldest daughter back home with them from her first year at the College.

Ezra Hoover, now superintendent of Elkhart County Schools, took time off to drop in. But Mary Bartholomew, M.D., had a Saturday p.m. office full of patients and couldn't make it, we heard.

"Hoptie" Lantz and Mrs. Lantz arrived from Detroit as the reunion was getting into full swing. I think he has the record I thought I held—of having been back to the College the least times (one, hiding my face) since graduation. He hadn't been back even once! But we were equally glad to be there this time, I'm sure.

The Kropfs, from South Bend, had thought they could get there for a short time, in spite of a school affair in the evening, but they didn't make it; we were all sorry. And Berdine Thornton Stutzman, now living in Benton Harbor, Mich., though wanting to so very much, didn't feel equal to the rather strenuous occasion.

All this time, we had, among other things, been reading all those letters of acceptances and regrets which Florence Bender had forwarded to the Sprungers. They made interesting reading, indeed. The communication from Gladys and Walter Rutt, 'way down South, was written on special Class of '22 stationery. You'd forgotten we had that, hadn't you? The 1922 Maple Leaf came in for some attention, too. Personally, I'd just as soon skip the picturized story of twenty years ago. Contrasts are sometimes quite unkind. Anyway, that was a good idea Florence [Bender] had. But wasn't she coming? She did—the last one to arrive, I believe. Or did she get there before the A. Y. Kings from Cleveland? Dr. King—yes, he's lost his youthful contours—had to teach a class at Western Reserve Saturday morning, hence the late arrival. We tried to get him to give the speech he was scheduled to make at the banquet this evening, but no sale.

Entered as second class matter November 17, 1924, at the postoffice at Goshen, Indiana, under Act of August 24, 1912. Acceptance for mailing at special rate of postage provided for in Sec. 1103, Act of October 3, 1917, authorized November 1, 1924.

Florence was congratulated on her much work in rounding us all up either in person or on paper. Sorry, but not quite everyone responded. Maybe they will next time, which ought to be in five years, Fred B. thinks. He prophesies more changes in the next five years than in the last twenty. Will time make him a good prophet, I wonder?

We really had fun having our pictures taken on the Sprungers' spacious back lawn. We'll all have more fun (?) when we see them, though, I know; for cameras just don't lie.

Be seeing you?
Vera Thornton Shields.

The following sent letters telling of their work and interests:

Eli Stoltzfus, Hesston College. Hesston Kansas
Walter and Gladys (Miller) Rutt, Gulfport, Mississippi

Class Business Meeting

In the evening of May 16, 1942, most of us gathered again at the alumni banquet tables set aside for our class. Vera (Thornton) Shields could not stay for the evening, but the rest of us, including Dr. Mary Bartholomew enjoyed the banquet very much. Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Rychner, and Mr. B. Frank Hartzler joined the group, having been identified with our class at some time during the four-year period. We talked and ate, but mostly talked. Even B. F. became lively.

After the banquet and the program were concluded, the class met for a short business discussion. The meeting opened informally, Wilbur Miller acting as our chairman. Since we have been rather inactive as a class, it was moved and seconded that Clarence Fulmer, Wilbur Miller, and Florence Bender, the original committee appointed, on graduation, to act for the class, be asked to continue to serve in that capacity. Mr. Miller and I decided that we would add Mr. Sprunger to the list so that at least two could discuss any business together before its submission to the class for final consideration. It was decided that letters be sent to each of the absent members telling them about our class reunion. We asked Vera Thornton Shields to write a description of our afternoon reunion. A vote of thanks was given to Mr. Sprunger and Mr. Bryner and their wives for the delightful afternoon tea at which we all had such a good time. We also told the Howard Yoders' how much we enjoyed the beautiful white and pink carnations which graced our banquet table, brought all the way from the Yoder greenhouse.

It was further decided that once a year the first two weeks in September each member of the class would send a letter, for class consumption, to Florence Bender, R. 5, Box 141, Goshen. These letters would then be mimeographed and the copies mailed to each class member, shortly thereafter. A small collection was made to defray some of the expenses connected with our class activities. It will be recorded in the treasurer's book.

We decided to give a small appreciation gift to the College, the gift to be made by September, if possible. So, please send your contributions to Wilbur Miller, 270 East State Street, Columbus, Ohio, as soon as you conveniently can.

Finally, we decided to look forward to a really big reunion on our twenty-fifth anniversary and at that time give a very substantial gift to our Alma Mater.

Signed:
Florence E. Bender.

DEBT LIQUIDATION PROGRAM LAUNCHED

As a result of another of President Ernest E. Miller's inspirations, the Mennonite Board of Education launched a debt liquidation drive on June 1, 1942, to wipe out the debts of both Goshen and Hesston colleges. One day while thinking about a much needed new heating plant and auditorium-gymnasium. President Miller was faced with the present College debt of approximately $40,000. Accordingly he held a conference with President Milo Kauffman of Hesston and the two agreed to present their plan to the Education Committee of the Mennonite Board of Education in January. This committee appointed a special subcommittee to prepare a program of debt liquidation for the two schools. O. O. Miller 15, financial agent of the Board, presented this plan to the Board at the annual meeting in February and after considerable discussion concerning its details and purposes, the Board adopted the program.

The plan of the campaign calls for raising a total fund of $105,000 during a fifteen-month period beginning June 1, 1942, and continuing until September 1, 1943. This total allows for the liquidation of the debt of both colleges and provides for handling the current operating deficits of the two colleges for the fifteen-month period. During this period no funds will be solicited except for the debt liquidation program. The Board, however, will accept voluntary contributions for other funds.

The N.C.A. and Debt Liquidation

The debt liquidation plan received added encouragement ("encouragement" is scarcely strong enough a word) when President Miller met the examining committee of the North Central Association at the annual meeting in March and was once more reminded in a friendly way that Goshen's debt left the general pattern of Goshen College in a rather unsatisfactory state. In a firm but friendly manner the examiners reminded President Miller, "We shall expect you to do something about that debt between now and the next annual meeting."

From a number of different angles, therefore, it appears that President Miller's inspiration was a wise one. Liquidation of the debt will enable the Board to spend its income for educational purposes instead of paying for interest and service on the debt. It will demonstrate that Mennonites carry out their time-honored standards of business into their institutional work. It will establish the accreditment of both Goshen and Hesston on a sounder basis by increasing the amount of stable income, another item on which the N.C.A. has asked for another report in 1943. Finally, it will place the Board's schools in a better position to meet the exigencies of what economists agree is an uncertain financial future on account of disturbed conditions in the world in general.

Campaign Setup

The Board of Education has appointed the following debt liquidation committee: O. O. Miller 15, financial agent, chairman; Bishop Milo Kauffman, president of Hesston College; Ernest E. Miller, president of Goshen College; and the two business managers of Goshen and Hesston, C. L. Graber and Laban Swartzendruber. This committee has formulated careful and detailed route lists for their main solicitors, Ernest E. Miller, C. L. Graber, Milo Kauffman, Laban Swartzendruber, and I. E. Burkhart. Others from both institutions will aid in this program but the itineraries of the four above mentioned cover Indiana, Illinois, Ohio, Ontario, Pennsylvania, Kansas, Idaho, Oregon, California, Nebraska, part of Texas, possibly Mississippi and Louisiana, Missouri, Colorado, and small sections of other states. The committee has set a goal of $11,000 per month for the summer months and is up to schedule at the present time.

Alumni Part in the Debt Liquidation

Alumni are much interested in the new program for erasing the College debt. During the past several years members of the Alumni Association have shown an increasing interest in the College finances and have donated generously to the current operating expense fund of the College.

The Board of Directors of the Association at the annual meeting in May adopted a resolution heartily endorsing the debt reduction program and pledging the Association's full support. During the fifteen-month period beginning June 1, all contributions by alumni, unless otherwise specified, will be credited to the debt reduction fund. During the past year alumni contributed nearly $5,000 for College support as part of the "living endowment" program. During the same period the total contributions from all sources for the current expenses of the College were a little over $16,000. Hence, alumni contributed about one third of the total amount donated.

As stated above, the debt liquidation campaign calls for raising $105,000. Goshen's portion of this amount is about $65,000. If the Alumni Association is to contribute to the debt liquidation program in the same proportion as its contributions to the expense fund during the past year, about one third, it should not be unreasonable to expect alumni contributions to total $21,000 for the fifteen-month period ending September 1, 1943.

This means that alumni would contribute about $16,000 during the year beginning June 1, 1942, and ending June 1, 1943, and an additional $5,000 by September 1, 1943. It means also that alumni would contribute approximately $1,350 per month.

Progress of the Campaign

One contribution of $1,000 by one alumnus and two others of $250 and $200 have already taken care of the alumni quota for the first month. Donations from six or eight other alumni have raised the quota for the second month. Hence, so far as the alumni are concerned the drive is not only under way, but it is ahead of schedule. However, if the total of $21,000 is to be raised it means that the previous regular annual contribution of each alumnus must be multiplied by four. In plain English, if you gave ten dollars last year, can you make it thirty between now and June 1, 1943, and ten more by August 31, 1943?

It is easy to be over enthusiastic at the beginning of the campaign but from all appearances alumni should experience very little difficulty in raising their $21,000. But it can be done in only one way and that is if regular alumni contributors will quadruple their usual contributions and if a group of new donors will join the group of regular givers.

Further Plans for Alumni Participation

The alumni secretary, Mr. Levi C. Hartzler 35, will send out the usual notices in October. Alumni who live in Mennonite communities will be visited by the regular solicitors appointed by the Board of Education but all alumni contributions will be credited to the Alumni Division of the Goshen College Accreditment Plan. Special solicitors will present the needs of the College and the claims of the debt reduction plan to alumni who live scattered here and there in this and other countries.

The debt liquidation program furnishes an added incentive for alumni support of their Alma Mater, an additional reason for sounding the slogan of the Alumni Association: EVERY ALUMNUS A CONTRIBUTOR EVERY YEAR.

ALUMNI CONTRIBUTORS

Alumni are continuing their support of the Association's program to improve the College finances, thus insuring continued accreditment in the North Central Association. The response to the President's special appeal for funds to be contributed before Commencement was especially gratifying as the following list of contributors testifies. The officers of the Alumni Association and the Administration of the College are deeply grateful for this tangible evidence of the continuing and increasing interest of the alumni.

NEW AUDITORIUM-GYMNASIUM

Although the debt reduction drive is receiving the major emphasis at the present time, a few alumni are very much interested in seeing an auditorium-gymnasium on the campus in the near future. E. A. Meyer 20, vice-president of the C. H. Musselman Company, at Biglerville, Pennsylvania, indicated his interest in a very substantial way by sending to President Miller early in July a check for $1000.00 to be applied to the building fund for the new auditorium.

ANOTHER REGIONAL ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

The 1942 banquet of the Sterling, Illinois, branch of the Goshen College Alumni Association was held in the Hotel Lincoln at Sterling, Illinois, on April 17. After the dinner the following program was rendered:

Vocal Solo
Ralph Wade accompanied by Jean Quilter
Address, "Goshen College and the Emergency"
President Ernest E. Miller
Selected Numbers, Science Ridge Junior Quartet
College Song

The committee in charge of arrangements was Mrs. Harold Bachman (Elda Long 36), Ada Lapp 31, Helen Wade x41.

NORTH CENTRAL ASSOCIATION STUDY COMMISSION

By Professor Paul Erb, Secretary of the Local Study Commission

Among the early profits coming to Goshen College from membership in the North Central Association is the privilege of participating in a co-operative study of various phases of college administration. This study is being carried on under a commission appointed by the North Central Association and financed by that organization. A large number of colleges, members of the North Central Association, applied for the opportunity to participate in this study. From these, twenty-eight colleges, of which Goshen was one, were chosen.

The study is a two-year project. It began with a workshop conducted at the University of Minnesota in the summer of 1941. Dean H. S. Bender, as director of our local study commission, attended this workshop, as did representatives from each of the participating colleges. In this workshop objectives and procedures for the study were outlined, and Dean Bender brought to Goshen considerable enthusiasm and a number of ideas concerning studies that could profitably be made in Goshen College. A second workshop is being conducted this summer at the University of Minnesota, and Dean Bender is again in attendance.

During the first year of the study the following projects were worked out:

1. A study of drop-outs in which data were gathered, graphs constructed, and interpretations made concerning students who in the last fourteen years began a college course at Goshen and did not continue to a degree.
2. A study of objectives, including both instructional objectives in the curricular activities of the College and non-instructional objectives in the extra-curricular activities.
3. A study of two-year certificates, their use by other colleges, and their desirability and possible use at Goshen.
4. Evaluation procedures, looking to an improvement of examination techniques and a closer correlation of objectives and evaluation.
5. Remedial reading—needs and procedures.
6. Freshmen—a factual description of freshmen at Goshen College over a period of years including such details as occupational preferences, high school grade averages, test scores, and freshman grade averages.

These and other studies will be continued during the coming year under the same organization.

The studies mentioned have been a real stimulus to the faculty. Of special value in a general way were the discussions, first in the divisions and later in the faculty, of the divisional and course objectives. Data gathered in the drop-out study and relative to two-year certificates are of immense value to the College in determining to what extent our junior college years should be considered as terminal. The studies concerning remedial reading have already resulted in a new emphasis on this phase of college training. Mr. Levi Hartzler is spending five weeks at the University of Chicago preparing to carry on remedial reading on our campus.

Another benefit from the study was the privilege, enjoyed by several members of the commission, of attending a conference at Denison College in Ohio last spring, in which studies made in the various schools were reported on.

CANADIAN UNIVERSITY TO GIVE CREDIT FOR WORK AT GOSHEN

The Administration has set up an arrangement with the educational authorities in Canada which will make it possible for a Canadian to take the first three years of his arts course at Goshen College and then transfer to the University of Western Ontario or an affiliated college and with one year of work secure his Arts degree. The University is not averse to permitting Goshen College to grant a Bachelor's degree at the same time. This will make it possible for Canadian students to receive a degree both in Canada and in the United States and will enable them to pursue graduate study or to secure employment in either country.

The Registrar of Waterloo College points out the advantages of this plan in the following words: "I trust that out of the above [arrangements] it will someday prove to advantage to some student or students of Canadian birth to get a degree from both Goshen and a Canadian University. This would be of particular value for one who may wish to become a High School Assistant Teacher in some Ontario School. Such a scheme could, as seen by the above, easily be put into practice."

NORTH GOSHEN BIBLE SCHOOL

A summer Bible school was held at the North Goshen Church June 1-12 with an enrollment of ninety and an average daily attendance of seventy.

Harold Mishler 42, Davidsville, Pennsylvania, was the superintendent. Teachers were as follows: Kindergarten, Mrs. Harley Christner, Mrs. Alvin Yoder; Primary classes, Hazel Schrock 45, Carol Yoder, Miriam Hill, Mary Berkman, Myriam Sieber 42; Junior girls, Winifred Erb, formerly of Hesston, Kansas, now of Goshen; Junior boys, Roscoe Brown 43. Beulah Litwiller 45 had charge of the missionary hour.

The school closed with an interesting achievement program on Friday evening, June 12.

1942 SUMMER SESSION

Summer School enrollment of one hundred ten breaks all previous records since the summer of 1923. Several factors enter into the increased interest in summer study: the present year's high school graduates are eager to begin their premedical, predental, or pre-engineering courses in order to be well on in their course before they are affected by the draft; students already in residence are remaining in school for the summer for the same reason; young women who are preparing to teach are now completing a semester's work this summer so that they will be ready to step into a teaching position at the mid year; a number of prospective teachers are completing their work this summer to qualify for a permit by September. In addition there is the usual number of teachers who had completed the two-year program and are now required by their state laws to keep working toward a degree in elementary education.

The proportion of men and women is about two to three. A paragraph from the June 12 issue of the College Record sums up this situation as follows: "When we say that there are forty-two men, compared to the sixty-two women, it sounds bad enough, but when we compare the dorm registration, twenty-one fellows and thirty-eight girls, it sounds even worse. Of course, the shortage of men is helped a little by the nine extra fellows who live in the dorm but don't attend classes; but again the Kulp Hall inmates retaliate by adding their cleaning and office crews, which brings us into the awful unbalanced balance again."

The prolific pen of a news-editor with a penchant for statistics adds this bit of information: "On account of some unexplainable fact, the Yoders are practically in disgrace. Seven Millers topped the registration, of course, but the Yoders didn't even come in second. Six Lehmans copped that ranking, and the four Yoders are contenting themselves with third. (They've got Bertha, though, and that helps.)"

Ten regular members of the Goshen College faculty and two special instructors are offering thirty-two courses in the summer session. They are: Dr. Amstutz, Florence Bender, Mrs. Paul Erb, and Professors Paul Erb, B. F. Hartzler, H. Harold Hartzler, Guy F. Hershberger, Silas Hertzler, Glen Miller, Mary Royer, Willard Smith, John Umble, S. W. Witmer, and S. C. Yoder. Students are enrolled from nine states including Indiana, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Iowa, Maryland, Kansas, New York, and Delaware. The largest number of students, fifty-four, come from Indiana. Ohio is second with twenty-seven.

RETURNS FROM EUROPE

Dr. M. C. Lehman 15, who had been interned at Bad Nauheim, Germany, with members of the United States diplomatic corps, for five months preceding May 16, arrived in New York on Monday, June 1, on the Swedish steamer, Drottningholm. Prior to the declaration of the war Dr. Lehman had been engaged in Mennonite relief work in Poland with headquarters in Berlin. He was at first interned at Laufen and treated as prisoner of war. In the beginning of his internment as many as sixty-five persons were confined in one room. They were allowed only one shower bath per week. Ferocious dogs were turned loose at night to prevent the escape of the prisoners.

On his return Dr. Lehman went directly to Akron, Pennsylvania, where his wife, Mrs. Lehman (Lydia Liechty 05), has had charge of the packing and shipping of clothing to needy people in the war-stricken areas. Since his return Dr. Lehman has visited his son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. Robert L. Bender 32 (Carolyn Lehman 34), of Elkhart, and his son, Waldo 39, a senior in the Northwestern University medical school in Chicago. Soon after Dr. Lehman's return his mother died at Columbiana, Ohio.

Dr. Lehman has been appointed assistant overseer of the Civilian Public Service camps in the eastern part of the United States for the duration of the war. At present he is spending part of his time reporting to Mennonite congregations on the relief work which he has been doing in Poland.

SUMMER BIBLE SCHOOL AT COLLEGE CLOSES

The Goshen College summer Bible school closed Friday, June 19, with an achievement program given in the College auditorium before a large audience of parents and friends. Each class group gave one or more numbers on the program. The junior three-part chorus, under the direction of Professor Paul Erb, sang several numbers. After the program the parents viewed an exhibit of the children's work displayed in the reading room of the library.

The director of the summer Bible school was Mrs. Glen R. Miller. She was assisted by Mrs. Carl Hostetler (La Verne Yoder 34). Mrs. I. E. Burkhart (Gladys Loucks 25) was leader for the worship period in the primary assembly. ADMINISTRATION BUILDING "DOLLS UP"

Owing partly to the liberality of alumni and other friends of the College, the Administration Building has undergone some interesting changes during the past few weeks. The lobby from the first floor has received a cover of black Tile-Tex mottled with gray and white over a padding of felt. Tile-Tex also covers the lobby of the President's office and the entire basement floor and the boys' wash room.

The stairs to the second floor have been covered with the same Tile-Tex laid over a metal mesh covered with cement. Each step is protected with a nosing of especially durable slip-proof iron. The floor of the front entrance and the steps leading to the first floor and the basement have been covered with Terrazzo.

The contractors are installing the gift of the 1942 graduating class, an entirely new arched front doorway assembly to replace the former square entrance and doors. The new entrance is built entirely of wood and glass curved in the same pattern as the present brick arch. President Miller seems to have a way of dreaming dreams of beauty into these drab Administration Building halls and, fortunately, somewhere in his office he seems to have the Aladdin's Lamp to make these dreams come true.

BASIC STUDY FOR POST-WAR RELIEF

Assistant Professor Carl Kreider 36 is completing his term as research fellow at Brookings Institution this summer. His fellowship was interrupted during the year 1939-40 when those in charge of the research asked him to make a study of the trade relations of the British Empire. The terms of his fellowship allow him to pursue his studies in any field of research which Dr. Kreider himself chooses. He has elected to do research work in connection with the economic backgrounds for relief work after the war. He is making this study in part at the request of the Mennonite Central Committee which has charge of all relief work for the various Mennonite groups.

In Professor Kreider's work he is contacting various government departments that are concerned with relief work, specifically the State Department and the Board of Economic Warfare. The latter is, incidentally, headed by a Quaker who is utterly and absolutely opposed to war in any form.

Dr. Kreider's work also brings him in contact with the United States Department of Agriculture and with the President's Committee on War Relief Agencies. Professor Kreider will conclude his work on the fellowship about August 20.

His work is the first strictly scientific study for the benefit of the Mennonite Central Committee in the area of actual economic needs and backgrounds for relief work.

NEW GRANT FOR EXPERIMENTS WITH COLCHICINE

Dr. O. J. Eigsti 31, associate professor of Botany at the University of Oklahoma, has received a second grant of $1,000 from the Carnegie Corporation of New York. Dr. Eigsti's work has excited so much attention and interest among the men of the plant sciences that three hundred of them in forty states of the Union and two provinces of Canada are co-operating with him in his experiments in the use of the drug colchicine to produce plants of improved size and quality. This project was begun in April, 1940 when fifty-seven species of plants were treated by one hundred experimenters and nineteen of them reported favorable results. Dr. Eigsti himself has produced a new variety of tomato and sweet potato. Under observation on the plot of land at Norman, Oklahoma, owned by the alumni association of the University of Oklahoma, he has forty additional plants treated with colchicine.

A recent issue of the Oklahoma Daily, the University student paper, gives half of the front page to a report of Dr. Eigsti's work and a large picture of the doctor at work in his experimental plot.

During the past winter the Board sold the building and purchased a convenient, modern brick dwelling adjoining the mission property on the north at 1303 St. Mary's Avenue. The former residence south of the church has been sold and is being converted into five apartments. The work at the Ft. Wayne Mission is growing and Mr. and Mrs. Ebersole feel much encouraged with the progress of the work.

Amsa H. Kauffman 27 wrote from Tuleta, Texas, on May 29: "Sunday p.m. we are going to Falfurrias to begin a Summer Bible School. This will be our first experience in this work. Quite a number of the children are gone but we think the attendance will be fair anyway. We wanted to have a school at Helena too, but the children there are in the onion fields in other communities. It seems the Mexicans are going to the harvest fields much earlier this year than other years. We are glad they are finding work, but we miss them at our services." Mr. and Mrs. Kauffman (Nona Miller x25) are doing good work in spite of what at times may seem rather discouraging conditions.

Mr. Byler spent four days in Mexico City visiting points of tourist interest including the pyramids at Teotihuacan, the floating gardens at Xochimilco, and the Guadalupe cathedral. He then returned by bus over the dizzy heights and hairpin curves of the Pan American highway to Laredo in a twenty-four hour continuous drive. On the trip, Mr. Byler seems to have contracted typhoid-malaria. He is combating the disease satisfactorily but will be unable to spend the summer in the music school at Northwestern University as he had intended.

Dr. S. M. King wrote from Dhamtari, C.P., India, on February 22: “Health of the missionary group is good at present. While we are aware of destruction and of impending dangers near at hand, we are conscious of our Saviour’s presence and of our Father’s continued love and care and are depending on His grace to sustain us. The first quarterly prayer meeting of 1942 was held in our home on February 5. All the missionaries and their children were present except those of the Bihar Field.”

Bishop T. K. Hershey 10 wrote from Trenque Lauquen, F.C.O., Argentina, on April 29: “We are all well as is the whole missionary force, except Bro. Lauver. He has to have his tonsils removed. He will have it done at the British Hospital this week yet. The work is moving along nicely in all of our towns. In all of them reports come of confessions. Tent season is over. It is too cold now for tent work. We are now following up the work done. The American Bible Society made a donation to our entire Mission of Bibles, New Testaments, Gospels, booklets of the Acts, and all the Epistles. Thus we are in a position to supply all of our converts with Bibles, etc.”

Paul A. Wittrig W.B.T., pastor of the new congregation at Imlay City, Michigan, writes under date of May 8: “Easter Sunday was red letter day for us here at Imlay City. We had 103 in Sunday school. When we first came here the attendance was in the thirties and some times in the twenties. We often wondered if we would ever have one hundred. Of the attendance two thirds are under 21 years of age. The last few Sundays I have preached on the Beatitudes. The children certainly enjoyed it. Two weeks ago (April 26), Bishop E. J. Yoder was with us for communion and baptismal services. Four young people were baptized and a sister was received by letter.”

THE ALUMNI NEWS-LETTER

HOME-COMING 1942

The annual Home-Coming for 1942 will be considerably abbreviated on account of certain restrictions, especially with regard to tire and gasoline rationing. The faculty has decided, however, to continue the Home-Coming exercises for at least the present year.

The events of this annual reunion of Goshen College students and alumni begin with the Thanksgiving sermon at 11:00 a.m. in Assembly Hall followed by the annual turkey dinner. Professor Walter E. Yoder's A Cappella Chorus will give a program on Thursday evening. As in former years, classes will be held on Friday all day in order to give returning students an opportunity to see their favorite instructors at work, to visit classes, and once more to get into the spirit of the college classroom.

Since many of the alumni are teachers and school administrators, the lecture course committee has been extremely fortunate in securing as a speaker for the annual lecture on Friday evening Dr. Henry L. Smith, widely known dean of the School of Education of Indiana University, and former president of the National Education Association. He will deliver his popular and inspiring lecture on "Personality and Character Building."

Saturday morning will be open for rest and visiting, and the afternoon will be devoted to the regular athletic events usually connected with Home-Coming. Mr. Roman Gingerich 41, director of recreation and instructor in physical education, promises several special features in addition to the annual basketball game between alumni and students.

The Home-Coming closes officially on Saturday but homecomers and friends are welcome to stay for the Sunday morning services—Sunday school and church. The vesper service formerly held in connection with Home-Coming will be omitted. The young people's meeting will be held in the evening as usual, probably with a special speaker.

On account of the uncertainty of travel and the extreme difficulty of judging in advance the number of people who will be present for the turkey dinner on Thursday, the dining hall management requests that if at all possible alumni will send in reservations so that proper provision can be made for the Thanksgiving dinner. Reservations for the dinner on Thursday and for lodging should be mailed to Warren Leatherman, Coffman Hall, or Louise Yoder, Kulp Hall, not later than November 21. These two seniors head the social committees of the Y who have charge of home-coming arrangements.

ENROLLMENT FIGURES

Official figures in the registrar's office show that by October 1, 254 students had enrolled, compared to 255 last year and 252 in 1940. The total enrollment, however, including part-time students, shows a marked drop from last year and two years ago. As against 83 part-time students in 1941 and 81 in 1940, this year's enrollment dropped to 29. This drop lies chiefly in the evening classes.

The total enrollment of resident seniors is the largest in the history of Goshen College, but of the 48 seniors 15 are graduating at the end of the first semester. The junior class numbers 52; sophomores, 66; and the freshmen, 104—5 less than last year.

Enrollment by curriculums is approximately the same as last year with 168, or 8 less, in liberal arts; 45 in elementary education, the same as last year; and 26 in Bible, an increase of 10. The number of secretarial students dropped from 18 to 15.

Of the 254 students, 114 are men. This means 2 more men than last year and 3 fewer women. As is pointed out below, one interesting feature of this year's registration is the large number of transfers from other colleges. Only a small part of this increase is due to the uncertainty of tire and gasoline rationing, a factor which would be expected to influence enrollment of local students.

TRANSFER TO GOSHEN

Following is the classification, name and address of students transferred to Goshen College in September from other institutions and the college from which the student transferred:

Seniors:

Amstutz, Edna; Orrville, Ohio; Mennonite Hospital Training School for Nurses, La Junta, Colorado

Climenhaga, Ethel; Kindersley, Saskatchewan, Canada; Messiah Bible College

Sophomores:

Beck, Frances; Goshen; DePauw University

Good, Edna; Waterloo, Ontario, Canada; Toronto Bible College

Grove, Gayle; Elkhart; Wheaton College

Kalb, Eugene; Goshen; DePauw University

Nelson, Dorothy Miller; Manitou Springs, Colorado; Mennonite Hospital Training School for Nurses, La Junta, Colorado

Schrock, Julia; Goshen; Northwestern University

Yordy, Richard; Chicago, Illinois; Woodrow Wilson Junior College, Chicago

One reason for the larger number of transfers is the closer co-operation between Goshen College and the Junior colleges supported by the Mennonite Church: the Eastern Mennonite School, in Virginia, and Hesston College, at Hesston, Kansas. The Messiah Bible College, at Grantham, Pennsylvania, a junior college supported by the Brethren in Christ Church, has also been sending several students every year for the past several years.

Drop Outs for 1942

The number of students who have discontinued their course at Goshen College for other reasons than graduation, is smaller this year than usual—eight juniors, thirty-two sophomores, and thirty-six freshmen. A large number of those who have dropped out are continuing their education in some other institution. Many are not drop-outs in the true sense; twelve freshmen completed the secretarial course and a still larger number of sophomores and juniors completed an elementary teacher training course or are teaching on a special permit. ALUMNI NEWS-LETTER

The ALUMNI NEWS-LETTER of the Goshen College Alumni Association is printed four times a year as the January, May, July, and October numbers of the Goshen College Bulletin.

OFFICERS OF ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

PRESIDENT: .... John Umble 01
VICE-PRES.: .... C. P. Martin 27
SECRETARY: .... Silas Hertzler 13
TREASURER: .... L. C. Hartzler 35

FIFTH MEMBER OF EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Entered as second class matter November 17, 1924, at the postoffice at Goshen, Indiana, under Act of August 24, 1912. Acceptance for mailing at special rate of postage provided for in Sec. 1103, Act of October 3, 1917, authorized November 1, 1924.

EDITORIAL CHAT

Present conditions in the United States and in the world at large are making it necessary for large numbers of alumni to change their addresses rather frequently. This makes it exceedingly difficult for the alumni office to keep in touch with alumni unless alumni will be thoughtful enough, as an increasing number of you are, to keep the office informed of every change of address.

When you change your address, first-class mail automatically follows you. Second-class mail, such as the Alumni NEWS-LETTER and other periodicals, is never forwarded and cannot reach you unless it bears the exact address, street and number or rural route. If your NEWS-LETTER is not correctly addressed, it is returned to the alumni office and the alumni office is charged two cents. We are sure that you wish to receive the NEWS-LETTER, and we are eager that you shall. Hence, be sure to keep us informed in regard to your complete address.

A word about Home-Coming. The Administration and the student body were in doubt as to whether Home-Coming should be continued, abbreviated, or entirely eliminated but the decision is that even though a smaller number of alumni may return, home-coming exercises will be held for the large number of alumni who live within easy driving distance of the campus and for the rather large number who live in Goshen and vicinity. The Alumni office does not wish to encourage, unduly, alumni to drive from a considerable distance at this time, much as we would like to see you. We believe that it is our duty as a college, as alumni and friends of Goshen, to respect the wishes of our President and Congress in all matters pertaining to conservation and economy. We shall, however, be glad to see you if you can come, and a cordial welcome awaits you here.

DEBT REDUCTION

According to reports by President Miller and by the two men who are spending a considerable amount of time in the field, C. L. Graber, business manager, and I. E. Burkhart, field secretary, the debt reduction program is proceeding satisfactorily. The Debt Reduction Committee reported $65,000.00 in cash and pledges as of September 24. Up to the time of going to press, the alumni office has not been able to secure a break-down of the figures or a list of contributors. It is impossible at this time to say what part of the total has been subscribed by the alumni group. Early reports indicate, however, that alumni are contributing their full share of the total.

At a recent meeting of the executive committee of the Alumni Association, held jointly with the college officials, the committee decided to set the alumni goal at $15,000. The editor of the NEWS-LETTER is confident that alumni will reach or exceed this figure during the first year of the debt reduction program.

The Alumni Secretary will mail the triple-duty envelopes as usual to reach alumni late in October or early in November. He is preparing a bulletin for alumni, also, to be mailed early in November, setting forth the alumni goals and the methods to be pursued in reaching them. The bulletin will state the progress that alumni have made to date in reaching their goal and will explain in detail future plans for enlisting the co-operation of alumni who are not reached by the regular solicitors.

EDUCATING MEN FOR RELIEF WORK

President Ernest E. Miller deserves credit for another project which will benefit not only Goshen College but other church related colleges as well. In line with the policy of the government to keep a certain number of young men in college in order to be of greater service, he has succeeded in initiating a movement to develop what is being called the Civilian Public Service Reserve Force. The object of this plan is to set up in certain church related colleges a curriculum for preparing young men to do relief work either during or following the war.

On Tuesday, September 29, as a representative of all Mennonite Colleges, President Miller, with President A. C. Baugher of Elizabethtown College, Elizabethtown, Pennsylvania, representing the Brethren Colleges, and President John Nason of Swarthmore College, Swarthmore, Pennsylvania, as representative of the Friends schools, met at Swarthmore College with Paul French, Executive Secretary of the National Service Board for Conscientious Objectors. The committee considered the type of curriculum most suitable for preparing young men for relief work.

On October 1 President Miller met with the presidents of the Brethren Colleges and members of their Service Board in Chicago to discuss further details of the plan.

AN APPRECIATED GIFT

Sometime during last year, several members of the class of 1932 were on the campus. They discovered that the radio phonograph which they had presented to the College as a class gift at graduation was in bad condition; so they decided to renew this gift of 1932 in 1942 as a sort of ten-year Jubilee project. The new radio phonograph purchased by the class is a really beautiful instrument and is in almost daily use by Professor Walter E. Yoder, especially in his classes in Music Appreciation and Introduction to Music. It has been placed in the Adelphian Hall where it is under lock and key and is to be used only by those specially authorized to do so. On Friday, September 25, it was formally presented to the College by Professor Sudermann during Chapel and President Miller gave the speech of acceptance for the College. Following is a list of the members of the class who contributed to the purchase of the new instrument: Dr. Robert Bender, Elkhart; Mrs. C. P. Martin (Erma Schertz), Elkhart; Mrs. Ernest Gillis (Lilly Esch), Mio, Michigan; Merle Hartzler, Casstown, Ohio; Alta Housour, Elkhart; Stanley Miller, Berlin, Ohio; Howard Nase, Perkasie, Pennsylvania; Mrs. Lauren Shank (Dorothy Smith), North Lima, Ohio; Eva Yeackly, Milford, Nebraska; Niemann Brunk, Frederick, Maryland; Mrs. Abram Hallman (Esther Yoder), Akron, Pennsylvania; Mrs. Paul Detweiler (Barbara Thut), Doylestown, Pennsylvania; Ada Lapp, Sterling, Illinois; Ralph Beechy, Camp No. 24; Professor Sudermann, Goshen.

Any member who previously found it impossible to help in this project may send his donation to Professor Sudermann.

THE PACIFIC COAST ALUMNI REUNION

The Oregon Federation of Mennonite Students held their annual reunion and meeting on Sunday afternoon, August 9, in the city park at Sweet Home, Oregon. Walter McDowell 40 acted as chairman in the absence of the president, Jesse Roth 42. Inez Snyder 46 was secretary. The program consisted of a number of songs by the Hesston College quartet, an address by C. L. Graber, and the singing of the Goshen and Hesston College songs by alumni.

This meeting is being held each year, and all present and former students and anyone interested in our Mennonite Schools have been urged to attend. E.M.S., La Junta, Hesston, and Goshen were represented at the 1942 reunion. There also were two people present who had attended Elkhart Institute. Goshen alumni were pleasantly surprised to see C. L. Graber at this reunion and to hear him speak.

COLORADO ALUMNI REUNION

He brought back with him as among the outstanding features of the reunion, memories of a beautiful Colorado evening, plates and plates of chicken, corn on the cob, and Rocky Ford melons. Fanny Schrock 42 as president was in charge of the reunion.

COLLEGE CONGREGATION NEWS

The annual business meeting of the College congregation was held Wednesday evening, October 7. The congregation adopted a revised form of the constitution, one of the principal changes being in the personnel and method of election of the church council. Under the revised constitution, the church council consists of the pastor, deacon, Sunday-school superintendent, all active ministers who are members of the congregation, the president of the College, and three members chosen annually by the congregation at the annual business meeting.

The election resulted as follows: for trustee, Carl Kreider, 36; members of the church council: Charles L. Shank 14, H. S. The present personnel of the board of trustees is, in addition to Carl Kreider, W. H. Smith 28, C. J. Gunden, C. P. Martin 27, and B. J. Schertz x07.

On account of his duties as business manager of the College and the added burdens connected with the Debt Reduction Campaign, the pastor, C. L. Graber x29, resigned. The congregation accepted the resignation to become effective if and when a successor is appointed. The congregation passed a motion authorizing the Bishop, Sanford C. Yoder, to appoint a committee to study the problem of selecting a new pastor.

On Sunday, October 11, Orie A. Miller 33 was ordained minister for the Bellevue Church near Peoria, Illinois. Bishop C. A. Hartzler, of Tiskilwa, Illinois, had charge of the ordination. In a service held in the afternoon the new church building was dedicated by Bishop J. N. Kaufman 17, of Peoria, following an address by Bishop C. A. Hartzler. Following the dedicatory ceremonies for the church, the parsonage also was dedicated by Bishop Kaufman.

The Bellevue Church and parsonage building project was begun four years ago under the auspices of the Peoria Mennonite Church of which C. Warren Long 29 is pastor. Mr. and Mrs. (Dr. Sarah Esch 33) Orie A. Miller took charge of the work at Bellevue two years ago when Mr. Miller was licensed but not ordained.

Mr. Miller completed the work for the B.A. degree at Goshen College in 1933 with majors in biological science and physical science. During the next year he continued work at Goshen College as a graduate student specializing in Bible. After teaching for several years he was registered as a student at Northern Baptist Seminary in Chicago.

NEW BOOK BY DR. WENGER

Dr. John C. Wenger 35, assistant professor of Bible and philosophy at Goshen College, is the author of a new volume, Christ The Redeemer and Judge, with the sub-title, "Brief Studies in The Revelation, for Young People." The book containing one hundred and eight pages was published by the Herald Press (Mennonite Publishing House, Scottdale, Pennsylvania), with an introduction by C. F. Yake. The material was first printed in The Youth's Christian Companion, beginning in March of this year. The book attempts to explain in simple language, the book of Revelation, in the light of the remainder of the New Testament.

The author frankly assumes in this book, the nonmillennial position, but the text avoids controversy and confines itself to exegesis. An appendix gives synopses of the various millenarian views: nonmillenarian, premillenarian, postmillenarian. The usefulness of the book is further enhanced by a list of "Sources and Notes" and by two indexes, an index of scripture references and a general index. The book is nicely edited, neatly printed, and bound in blue cloth with gold stamp.

This bulletin will be mailed in November.

DR. SOLOMON GINGERICH PUBLISHES POETRY

Solomon F. Gingerich 00, Ph.D., has printed a small volume of verse and philosophical reflections which he calls, Poems and Comments. The book of fifty-two pages was printed by the Bethel College press at North Newton, Kansas, this year. The prose essays: "Time," "Eternity," "God, Man, and Nature," and "The Truth Shall Make You Free," show Dr. Gingerich in the role of the lofty thinker, the role most familiar to those who knew him at the Elkhart Institute and Goshen College forty years ago. Many of the poems deserve not only a second reading, but careful study. Both the essays and the poems reveal an ardent Christian, one who loves and understands the created works of God, and one who entrusts all phases of his being to the hand of the Infinite.

The poem, "He Knew What Was in Man," (John 2:25) closes with lines that show both humility and elevation of spirit.

"What wisdom and what mighty love,
  To know the evil in us sown,
Yet build His kingdom in our midst,
  And make us brothers of His own!"

The last stanza of "Dependence" reveals a kind of Wordsworthian and at the same time a Davidic use of nature.

"And as the quiet of the hills
  Steals unobtrusively on me,
Thy hidden strength, O God, sustains
  My spirit everlastingly."

Dr. and Mrs. Gingerich (Beulah Kauffman 06) have been living the life of a retired university professor family for a number of years at beautiful Springdale in the Arkansas Ozarks. Within the past few weeks they have purchased a lovely home in Eureka Springs, Arkansas, sometimes referred to as, "the most unique city in America." Their house situated on a high ridge, called East Mountain, overlooks "Little Switzerland."

Eureka Springs was once a thriving city resort, but the population has dwindled to less than half on account of tire rationing and other war restrictions. Dr. Gingerich's enthusiastic description of their new home and surroundings is a literary classic in itself.

FACULTY NOTES

On Wednesday evening, September 30, the men of the faculty enjoyed a steak fry on the summit of the New Paris hill. Professor Willard Smith 27 ate his first paw-paw and liked it. They spent the afternoon in boating, tennis, and hiking. Then after a wiener roast in the evening, they enjoyed a devotional period under the leadership of Professor Willard Smith. The theme of the program was, "The Holy Spirit in Our Life." Professor Walter E. Yoder 33 conducted the song service. Professor Olive Wyse 26 had charge of the devotional period. Dean Harold S. Bender 18 spoke on, "The Work of the Holy Spirit," and President Ernest E. Miller 17 on, "How May We Give the Holy Spirit a larger Place in the Program of Goshen College?" Levi C. NECROLOGY

Death invaded the College circle three times during the past summer, removing a freshman, William James Oswald, of North Lima, Ohio; Alta Hertzler, sophomore, of Morgantown, Pennsylvania; and Daniel A. Lehman, Professor Emeritus of mathematics and astronomy.

JAMES OSWALD

William James Oswald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Oswald 21 (Nora Hershberger x25), was born at Burghill, Ohio, June 9, 1923, and died at St. Elizabeth's Hospital, Youngstown, Ohio, on August 13, following an accident. The last nine years of his life were spent in the North Lima community. On September 9, 1934, he united with the Midway-North Lima Mennonite Church, serving faithfully in the Sunday school and young people's meeting, and taking a prominent part in both the senior and junior choruses and in several quartets.

Of his activities at Goshen College, the College Record states, "James Oswald entered Goshen College last year as a freshman, and expected to return this year. While here, he became a well-known campus figure. In athletics, 'Ossie' often took part, either as an actual participant or as a referee. Jimmie often played his cornet at programs, and, as a member of the Collegiate Chorus, sang the tenor solos."

He is survived by his parents, one brother, and two sisters.

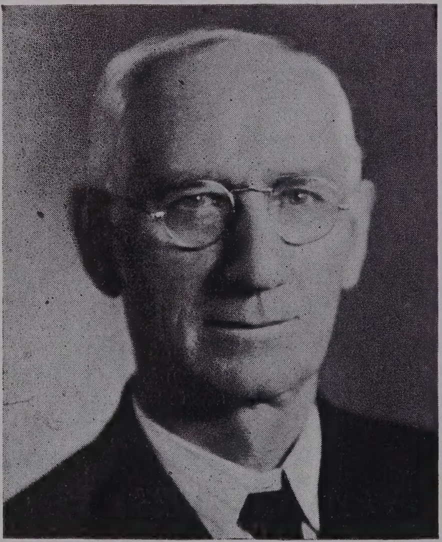
A large number of Goshen College students and alumni attended the funeral, held on August 16 at the Midway Mennonite Church in charge of Bishop A. J. Steiner 00, Paul Yoder x26, and David Steiner. Interment was made in the Midway Cemetery.

D. A. LEHMAN

Professor Lehman was born July 1, 1860, at Scotland, Pennsylvania, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob J. Lehman, and died at the Austin home at Goshen on September 8.

He was professor of mathematics and astronomy at Goshen College for nearly thirty years and was the first principal of the Goshen College Academy, filling that position from 1906 to 1926. Previous to his coming to Goshen in 1906, the President of the College had directed the work of the Academy, also.

Professor Lehman came to Goshen College in 1906 as professor of mathematics and astronomy, and served the institution until 1935 when, on account of ill health, he retired and was made Professor Emeritus.

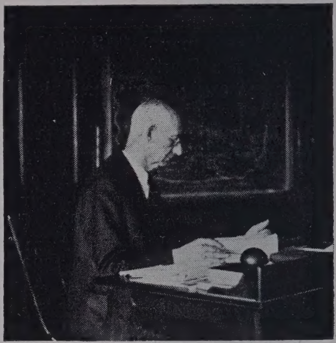


Professor D. A. Lehman

He was a member of the American Mathematics Association, of the Association for the Advancement of Science, and of the Indiana Academy of Science.

Even before coming to Goshen College Professor Lehman had had wide experience as a student, teacher, and administrator. After attending the common schools near his home in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, he attended the Millersville State Normal, and was graduated in 1889 with the first degree class of that institution with the degree, bachelor of science.

After teaching in the public schools for several terms, he attended Wesleyan University in Connecticut, where he received the degree, bachelor of philosophy, in 1893. He was a graduate student in mathematics at the University of Chicago 1893-95. From 1896 to 1898 he was principal of the academy in the University of the Pacific in California, and was a student at Lick Observatory the following summer. He served as professor of mathematics at Baldwin University in Ohio, 1898-1902, and spent his summers in graduate study at Western Reserve University where he was granted the M.A. degree in 1902. During the following year he was assistant in mathematics at Western Reserve University. For the next two years, 1903-1905, he was instructor in mathematics in Missouri State Normal School and the following year served at the University of Wisconsin.



After coming to Goshen College as professor of mathematics and astronomy in 1906, Professor Lehman continued his keen interest in graduate work in various institutions: at the University of Michigan during the summers of 1908 and 1909, Columbia University in 1910, the University of Chicago every summer from 1912 to 1918, and the University of Colorado in 1922. Even after his retirement from Goshen College, he spent most of his summers and at times entire years in further study. He was particularly fond of the University of Colorado and of Harvard University.

Professor Lehman was deeply devoted to his profession and to the students in his classes. After his waning powers made it impossible for him to continue his work in the classroom, he periodically attempted to re-enter the profession. Even during the past year, at Harvard, he applied for a teaching position in several colleges in the East and Middle West.

As an administrator and instructor, he was loved and respected by a large circle of Goshen College alumni. In Professor Lehman's passing the College and the community lose a ripe scholar and a cultured Christian gentleman of the old school.

Funeral services were held from the Goshen College Chapel on Thursday, September 10. The body lay in state in the College Chapel from 1 to 4 p.m. on the day of the funeral. Services were held in the Chapel at 4 p.m. in charge of C. L. Graber as chairman, Rev. Howard Brown, pastor of the First Methodist Church, of Goshen, and President E. E. Miller. Interment was made in the new addition to Violett Cemetery south of Goshen.

ALTA HERTZLER

Alta Sara Hertzler 44, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Hertzler, of Morgantown, Pennsylvania, was born April 14, 1921, and died at her home, July 23.

In college she was always cheerful and optimistic. Very few of her friends knew that she was working under the handicap of a weak heart caused by childhood illness of rheumatic and scarlet fever. Her reserve and her unwillingness to have her friends know about this condition of her heart led her to engage in activities beyond her strength.

Of her life on the campus, the College Record says, "For the past two years Alta was a vital part of the Goshen College campus. She was active in the field of home economics and full of pep on the volleyball team, but her contribution to musical activities was most appreciated. She sang in the A Cappella and ladies' choruses for two years, frequently as a soloist. Her achievements in this field also included membership in the College Ladies' Quartet in both her freshman and sophomore years. With this quartet she made two gospel team trips—one to Ontario, Canada, and one to Illinois. . . .

"It was not primarily Alta's singing which endeared her to the hearts of Goshen College students; it was Alta herself. Her cheerfulness, vitality, and sincere friendliness won her many friends. Truly, she was not ashamed of the gospel of Christ, and this made her strong in Christian character. Christ was real to Alta—she always asked for His help before singing—and this made her testimony ring true."

After returning home from college last spring, she spent one week in a hospital. From that time on she was at her home under the care of Naomi Hershey, R.N., x44, as day nurse, and Mrs. Melvin Glick (Alta Schertz 40), as night nurse.

Funeral services were held on July 26, in charge of Bishop John Mast.

Dr. and Mrs. Fred S. Brenneman 33 (Millie Page Brenneman 33), missionaries on furlough from India, were the principal speakers at a missionary meeting at the Oak Grove Mennonite Church near West Liberty, Ohio, on Labor Day. This was the one hundred fortieth quarterly missionary meeting of Champaign and Logan counties.

L. S. Yoder 05, of Gulfport, Mississippi, spent several weeks in Virginia during August and September, visiting members of his family and doing evangelistic work.

Joe A. Yoder x20, of West Liberty, Ohio, is chairman of the Missions Committee of the three Mennonite churches near that village. During recent months he began to visit, to speak, and to circulate literature among the Mexicans who have come from Texas for the sugar beet season. With the aid of Lester T. Hershey 36, of the Mexican Mission in Chicago, he secured the services of one of the helpers of the mission in Chicago, John Ramirez, to assist in the work by teaching and distributing Gospel literature. To former residents of the West Liberty neighborhood, it seems strange to be thinking of that community as the location of a Mexican Mission.

Joe A. Yoder also served as superintendent of the summer vacation Bible school held at the Mennonite Church near New Carlisle, Ohio, (Medway) during June and July. Interest was excellent. The meetings were held in the evenings because a large number of the congregation were working in shops. The total enrollment was ninety, the average attendance eighty-three, and thirty-five were present every night.

H. N. Yoder x39, of Elkhart, was director of the two summer Bible schools conducted by the Olive congregation during the past summer.

The Rev. Jesse N. Smucker 18, former pastor of the Bethel College Church at North Newton, Kansas, has resigned that pastorate to accept a similar position with the First Mennonite Church of Bluffton, Ohio. After his graduation from Hartford Theological Seminary, he had served as minister of the Oak Grove Mennonite Church, near Smithville, Ohio, before going to Bethel. The Bethel College Bulletin in reporting his leaving states, "His resignation is a great loss to the College and community." The Rev. Smucker, in making this important change, seems to have yielded to a sort of longing to return to the friends and associates of his earlier years and to be nearer his former home in Wayne County, Ohio. In a touching farewell he expressed his appreciation for the fine fellowship which he enjoyed at Bethel College and also expressed deep appreciation for the work that Bethel College is doing. The pulpit of the Bethel College Church will be filled temporarily by the Rev. Lester Hostetler 15.

At a conference on Mennonite Cultural Problems held at Winona Lake, Indiana, August 7 and 8, many of the phases of Mennonite thought and activity were discussed in a searching, scholarly manner. The following Goshen College alumni spoke: Dr. M. C. Lehman 04 on "European Mennonites as I Found Them"; Dr. Melvin Gingerich, of North Newton, Kansas, on "Is There a Need for a Mennonite Rural Life Publication?" Dr. Gingerich's address was printed in the July issue of the Mennonite Quarterly Review.

R. R. Smucker 28, of Goshen, has been called to serve the Yellow Creek congregation west of Goshen, as their pastor. Mr. and Mrs. Smucker (Alma Albrecht 11) have purchased the cottage (Westwind), built on the shore of the Elkhart River dam by Clara Trautwein 05, of Goshen, several years ago.

Amsa H. Kauffman 28, of Tuleta, Texas, writing under date of August 31, describes their first experience with a tropical storm in Texas. Windmills were blown down and roofs from sheds and houses blew all over town. He also describes in an interesting way their trip to the Border and into Mexico.

Loren King 31, superintendent of the Mennonite Orphans' Home at West Liberty, Ohio, writes in the Mission News Bulletin that the Home needs workers. On account of insufficient help the Home has been forced to reject six applicants for admission. It would seem that this should enlist the sympathy and aid of some consecrated young Christian.

Allen Ebersole 30, superintendent of the Fort Wayne Mission at 1303 St. Mary's Avenue, writing under date of August 10, describes a Bible school held in Brown County, Indiana, during the past summer. The attendance ranged from twenty-four to thirty-five. The people are already looking forward to another school next summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Hershey 36 (Alta Good 38) continue to enjoy their work at the Mexican Mission in Chicago. Under date of July 31 they wrote: "Last night the last of the children returned from the country. They were all satisfied with their home and I dare say that the majority of them did not want to return. It is no wonder, for even little tots notice the difference between Christian homes and their own." They also stated that they expected to begin a converts' class in several weeks and that there would be five or six boys and girls between the ages of ten and sixteen, all products of Sunday-school teaching.

Dr. Ida L. Eby 16, of Goshen, attended the annual convention of the Indiana State Medical Convention, at French Lick, in September.

Of the seven doctors in attendance at the Elkhart County Medical Society at the Hotel Elkhart on the evening of September 3, three were Goshen College alumni: Dr. Ida L. Eby 16, Dr. Mary Bartholomew 22, Dr. C. K. Bender 29. They heard Dr. Gerald Gibson, of Chicago, speak on "Heart Trouble Among Children."

Early in September, Professor Noble Kreider returned from Mexico where he spent the summer chiefly in Tlaxcala and Puebla.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kaufman 35 (Beulah Troyer 36) have moved to Casey, Illinois, where Mr. Kaufman has set up an independent photographic studio. He resigned a good position of photography in Peoria to take up independent work.

Bishop and Mrs. J. N. Kaufman 17 (Lillie S. Shenk 20) moved to Gardena on October 1. Mrs. Kaufman will continue her medical work. Their address is Peoria, rural route five. Bishop Kaufman has been ordained for the Pleasant Hill congregation. It is this church that is welcoming the Kaufman's to Gardena.

Alumni are enjoying the articles in the Youth's Christian Companion, written by Mrs. Atlee Beechy (Winifred Nelson 38), of Columbus, Ohio.

George Falb x42, who has been enrolled in the engineering department of Wayne University, at Toledo, has moved to rural route two, Orrville, Ohio. The change has been necessitated by the draft situation.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard "Dick" Culp x40 (Mary Helen Powell x43) visited on the campus early in October.

Joy Hooley 37, of Topeka, Indiana, who for the past several years has been teaching in the Geauga County, Ohio, public schools, is employed in the public schools in Middlebury.

Ella Mae Hooley 40, who was a teacher in the Geauga County, Ohio, public schools last year, is teaching in Avilla, Indiana, this year.

Darwin O'Connell, of Lima, Ohio, who was a freshman at Goshen College in 1935-36, and returned to take up his college work in June of this year, was chosen unanimously as assistant pastor of the Lima Mennonite Mission congregation in September. After considering the matter for several weeks, he decided to accept the call and was ordained to the ministry Sunday afternoon, October 11. The officiating bishops were Dr. S. C. Yoder, of the College, and A. J. Steiner 00, of North Lima, Ohio. Mr. O'Connell will continue his school work. After his graduation he will assist his father, who is superintendent of the Lima Mission and bishop of that congregation.

Mrs. C. B. Blosser (Carrie Yoder 05), of South Eighth Street, Goshen, left early in October for Long Beach, California, to join her son Henry who is employed there. They will make their home with Mrs. Blosser's mother and sister, Mrs. Sarah Yoder and Miss Martha x18, of 702 Pine Avenue in Long Beach, where they are operating a restaurant.

Ernest E. Thornton 29, of Elkhart, was granted the degree, M.S. in education, at Indiana University, at the end of the past summer.

Beulah Smith x42, of Eureka, Illinois, and Myra Roeschley 40 visited Mr. and Mrs. Roy Umble 35 (Ferne Smith 33) and their daughter, Janet Marie, in Evanston, Illinois, late in August.

Agnes Spurgeon x40, who teaches in the high school at Hurley, New Mexico, arrived at her home in New Paris on June 5 to spend two weeks with her father and sister. She spent the remainder of the summer at the Y.W.C.A. camp at New Buffalo, Michigan, Mr. and Mrs. Orus Jessup x36, of Columbus, Ohio, spent several days in June visiting Mr. Jessup's parents south of Goshen and on July 1 left for New York where Mr. Jessup did graduate work in Columbia University.

Christine Logan x41, teacher of home economics in the Jefferson Township Public Schools, was elected president of the Jefferson Township alumni association at the May meeting.

The President's Message

It is gratifying to see the response of the friends of the college to our Debt Liquidation Program. Although the cash contributions at this moment stand at only $38,523.32, the cash and pledges total $79,547.82. Once again these results are justifying our faith in our constituency. You are doing nobly and we are deeply and truly grateful.

Many persons have had a share in planning for and carrying through the details of this program. But, C. L. Graber and I. E. Burkhart have been continuously at it from the beginning. They have been away from their homes most of the time since last June first. Their conviction in and enthusiasm for the program has been a considerable factor in its success. They and their families deserve our expression of appreciation, and so here is our great big THANK YOU.

As in many other fields today, so in the field of education, there are grave uncertainties. Accelerated programs and the urgency of obtaining particular skills are disrupting to a college of liberal arts. The rapid changes in the draft regulations also make difficult planning for faculty personnel or predicting the enrollment of men students. The emotional stress of the times affects us all. There are tremendous pressures urging us to abandon sacred ideals and discard faith and hope. The present war torn world seemingly denies most of what Christ taught and stood for. But, in another world we are still Christian. We cannot believe and do not wish to feel that He died in vain on Calvary. Serious tensions grow out of the strivings of these two worlds.

During such days Goshen College strives to be helpful to all her students. She seeks to guide her young men and women to discover those techniques of living which will develop an inner, deeper, richer life. She knows that the profound meaning of inward personal Christian experience becomes not less but more important in turbulent dismaying times. She knows, too, that Christian people are urgently needed now to keep the higher realms of the Christian faith and spirit intact and luminous so that the world will have something to come back to when these terrible days are over.

In these times Goshen seeks to be especially helpful to two particular classes of men students. There is the group who have made a definite decision to prepare themselves for the work of the Church. Goshen has, this year, twenty-one students who are enrolled in the Bachelor of Theology course. Eleven of these have already received IV-D classification from their local draft boards. This means that the Government has agreed that they are to be excused from fulfilling a present obligation in the belief that they can make a larger one later on. The college has a responsibility in seeing to it that they are adequately prepared to make that later contribution.

Again, at the conclusion of the present conflict, one of the great needs of many areas of the world will be to relieve suffering. There will be an unparalleled opportunity for relief administration and reconstruction work. Trained men and women will be needed as never before. Not only men with a basic spiritual concern for the needs of all human beings but particularly men who possess special competence in the difficult tasks of administering relief. This is a field in which the conscientious objector can express constructively his concern for his fellow men. A large group of young men on our campus have definitely volunteered to prepare themselves for that task and it is the intention of the college to strive that they may be prepared to do that service well.

Divine assurance has been a heritage of God's people throughout all the centuries. Long ago one wrote: "Thou shalt hear a voice beside thee saying, 'This is the way, walk ye in it'." And, to the redeemed and confident comes the assurance, "I will instruct thee and teach thee in the way thou shalt go. I will counsel thee with mine eye." Claiming that promise Goshen College confidently goes forward in her task of directing and preparing young people for fields of Christian service.

Ernest E. Miller.

Adapting Home-Coming to the Emergency

Realizing that many of our friends cannot be with us this year, and desiring to co-operate with our government in conserving wherever possible, the faculty passed a resolution to curtail certain Home-coming activities, but to continue others for the benefit of our students and those friends who will be able to come. Special invitations have been sent to alumni and former students in our C.P.S. camps to spend one of their furloughs at Goshen College during Home-coming.

An outstanding feature of Home-coming will be the lecture on Friday night, November 27, by Dean Henry L. Smith of Indiana University. Dean Smith, who has written numerous books and articles in the field of education and who has had wide experience as a teacher and school administrator, will speak on "Personality and Character Building."

The student-faculty committee in charge of the Home-coming activities is planning a very worth-while program for those of you who can be here. No special meetings have been scheduled for Sunday, but all Home-comers are invited to attend the regular services at the college.

Report on the $2,500 Alumni Book Fund

J. B. Cressman, Librarian

Although the present librarian has had no connection either with the raising or the spending of the $2,500 Alumni Book Fund, it falls to his lot to present a report. The records show that 976 volumes have been added to the library through this fund. Certainly these acquisitions added greatly to the value of the library book collection, and the present librarian, as he looks at the titles purchased, cannot but feel happy at the loyalty of the alumni who have made possible this added strength to our total book collection.

A few words about the distribution of the purchases will be in order. It would seem that the various divisions shared according to their needs. Division I, that of language, literature, and the fine arts, secured 202 books. Division II, that of the social sciences, received 158. Division III, the natural sciences, got 145. Division IV, Bible and philosophy, added 119. Division V, education and psychology, secured 150. In addition to these, the reference collection of the library reading room added 128 titles and the general collection received 74.

When we add to the above facts the statement that approximately two thirds of the total number of books added to the library last year were purchased through this fund, it will readily be seen how important was this alumni book fund. It must not be inferred, either, that a division that received fewer books did not

The Work Office

Student Work Program Streamlined

The newly organized student work program under the direction of Mr. Roman Gingerich has already drawn comments from faculty and students. That faculty member who was surprised to find his office swept clean and that student who discovered that being late to work affected his efficiency rating have both learned to appreciate the new setup in their own way.

With the help of his secretary, Mrs. Levi C. Hartzler, and a student assistant, Mr. Gingerich has set up his office in the old Record room in the basement of the Administration Building. New linoleum, new paint, and Venetian blinds have transformed the room into an attractive office, conveniently located for the students.

Into that office flow requests for student labor on and off the campus. There assignments are made to specific tasks. Daily reports on each individual student's work are received, posted and kept on file. Monthly reports on each student and on the total program are made out and filed in the business office.

An analysis of the September report reveals some very interesting facts. Of the 195 boarding students on the campus, 128 or 65% are participating in the student work program. This does not include students working downtown. Of these 128 students, 83 are women and 45 are men.

A total of 4,503 student work hours were put in during the month of September. The student work load ranged from under ten hours to over eighty hours for the month. The accompanying graph shows that the most popular working load ranged from twenty to forty hours for the month, or from five to ten hours per week. The average student taking sixteen hours of class work per week, studying thirty-two hours and working ten hours will, therefore, be putting in fifty-eight hours per week.

Types of student work range all the way from firing the furnace and cleaning to student assistantships. Student jobs pay from 25c to 45c per hour. Jobs paying twenty-five cents usually allow time for study as in the case of work in the dormitory offices. Student assistantships which require knowledge and skill pay forty-five cents per hour.

The average wage stands at 35c per hour this year. Skill required to perform the task and the amount of work necessary while on duty determine the wage scale.

Every student works under a faculty or skilled student supervisor who signs his daily work report and gives him an efficiency rating. Efficiency ratings range from eight points, poor, to twelve points, very good, with ten points as an average. An efficiency rating below ten is considered unsatisfactory and may result in a student losing his job or being transferred to another task.

REPORT ON THE $2,500 ALUMNI BOOK FUND

secure its fair share of total appropriation. For some divisions expensive sets were purchased, notably in the case of the chemistry department, for which J. W. Mellor's Comprehensive Treatise of Inorganic and Theoretical Chemistry, a set of eleven volumes, was bought. Although the actual purchase price of this set was somewhat more than $250.00, the committee correctly felt that the importance of the set justified the outlay. Certainly this is an extremely valuable and much prized addition to the reference holdings of the chemistry department.

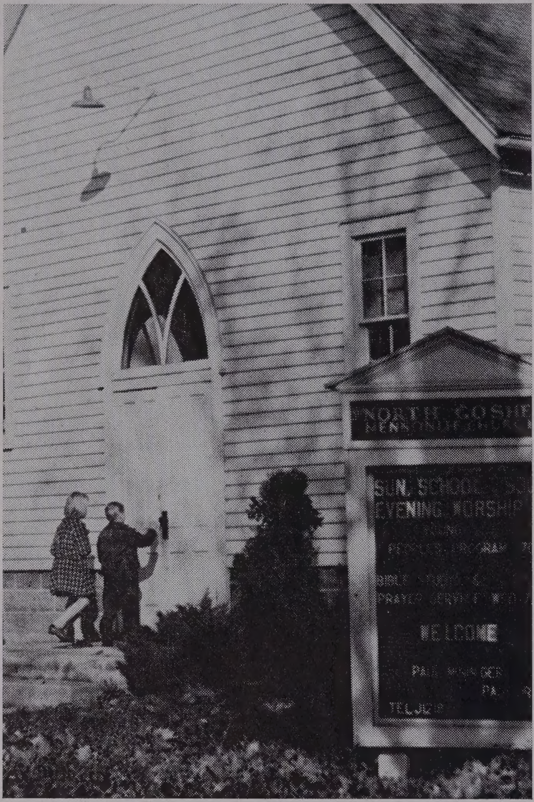
From the foregoing it is apparent that virtually all purchases were made to strengthen and further the educational work of the institution on its more formal and curricular side. Apparently there were no funds left for browsing material in the fields of fiction, biography, and travel; that is, reading matter which would meet what might be called the general cultural aims of the college as distinct from the specific educational aims. This is in itself a significant commentary on the holdings of the Goshen College Library. Apparently the needs in the strictly educational fields—cultural as they certainly are—have been so great as to absorb the purchases of new books so that the general cultural needs must be met more slowly. This must be a continuing objective of the one who guides the library purchases of Goshen College.

In the Kitchen

In the Dormitory

Possibly many alumni would be interested in a few of the titles purchased in the various subject fields. In Home Economics we note: Feeding our Old-fashioned Children, Babies are human beings, Economics of the household; in history: The conquest of civilization, The coming struggle for Latin America, The Civilization of the old Northwest; in physics: Fundamental electronics and vacuum tubes; in English: Charlotte Bronte (Benson), The Barretts of Wimpole St., Charles Lamb and his contemporaries, Life and times of Edgar Allen Poe; in Bible: The training of the Twelve; in health: Wisdom of the body; in philosophy: Contemporary American philosophy, Philosophies of beauty; in Economics: The internal debts of the U. S.; in psychology: The psychology of adolescence; in education: When youth leaves school; and for reference: Subject index to poetry.

From the above sampler it may be seen that the solid achievement of the alumni in raising this sum of $2,500 has been backed by an equally solid achievement in book selection, for the above titles are typical and representative. "And what shall I say more" than to add that a worthy and excellent project has been brought to a fitting conclusion.



Results of a Student Project

Practical Work for Students at Goshen College

Paul Mininger, Director of Practical Work

The preparation of Christian workers for the Mennonite Church requires not only a thorough academic training, but also an opportunity for the worker to practice the skills which he will use when he gets on the field. The educational value of practical work has led Goshen College to develop many opportunities by which students can engage in practical Christian work. In planning these activities an attempt has been made to help the student to engage in activities which are in the line of his major interest and ability, and to relate it as closely as possible to the work which he will engage in after he has completed his training. All students who are enrolled in the Bible School are expected to engage in some form of Christian work along with their studies.

During the past ten years the North Goshen Sunday School and Church has provided an excellent opportunity for Goshen College students to gain practical experience in church work. The Sunday school originated as a student project and was developed largely by students. It furnished them opportunities for teaching in Sunday-school classes, for doing personal work and taking part in evangelistic meetings, as well as for engaging in visitation work in the homes of the community. Students were frequently given opportunity to speak either at the regular Young People's meetings or other meetings at the church. The outgrowth of this work by the students has been the organization of the North Goshen church as a completely independent congregation. When this change in organization took place, it was felt necessary for the congregation to take over most of the leadership of its activities. This left few opportunities for students to participate in the work there.

Another project has recently been started in order to provide additional opportunities for students to engage in Christian activities. A Sunday school was opened in the East Goshen section on October 18, 1942. A building has been made available and work is being carried on largely among the underprivileged people of that community. These people are not being reached by any other religious organization and the opportunities for carrying on Christian work are unlimited. This project will furnish opportunity for many students to engage in Sunday-school teaching, preaching, giving religious addresses, visitation in homes and personal work as well as conducting evangelistic meetings. The interest and the enthusiasm of the students in beginning this work is gratifying and it promises to be a worth-while project, both from the standpoint of serving the community and also from the standpoint of developing leadership skills among the students.

Other opportunities which are available to students in the Bible School as well as to other Goshen College students, are the following: conducting services in the county jail, speaking in Mennonite churches in the community or on extended Gospel Team tours, making religious surveys, teaching in churches in the community, leading campus organizations and meetings, singing and visiting in the homes of underprivileged people, and teaching the Sunday-school lesson to those who are not able to attend religious services.

These religious activities are administered jointly by the Extension Committee of the Y.P.C.A. and the Director of Practical Work of the Bible School, who is also adviser to the Y.P.C.A.

The future development of this phase of the educational work at Goshen College is being carefully studied with the expectation that many more projects can be started and that the variety of activities can be increased. It is also the hope of the College that a closer co-operation can be established between the Mennonite churches in the Goshen community and the work of the Bible School. Thus, students can gain experience in rural church work which will be invaluable to them when they are called to serve after graduation.

Contributions to the Alumni Fund 1941-42

Maintaining their record of loyalty Goshen College alumni again contributed liberally to their Alma Mater during the past year. Alumni contributions totaled $4,943.25, as shown on the accompanying graph.

These funds were used for current expenses and for the Ad Building repair. After the Board of Education adopted the debt reduction program at its February meeting and announced that solicitation would begin on June 1, the Executive Committee of the Alumni Association met to adjust the alumni program accordingly.

President Miller presented the need for repairing the Administration Building stairs and halls. About $2,200 had already been contributed by alumni for current expenses. Careful calculation showed that $2,000 more contributed between March 4 and June 1 would take care of current expenses and also provide funds for the repair. Alumni were acquainted with the need and responded splendidly. Specified contributions continued to come in during June, July and August.

In addition to contributions to the alumni fund and for the Ad Building repair, various individuals and groups of alumni contributed funds for a new electric drinking fountain for the Ad Building, a new orthophonic phonograph and radio, a new refrigerator for the kitchen, linoleum for first floor and furnishings for the reception room of Coffman Hall, insulation and repairs for the gym, and new desks for the Commerce room. Two friends purchased three more acres of land adjoining the recreation plot along the Elkhart river and gave the deed to the College. Moreover, approximately $17,000 in endowments and special gifts held in funds not yet expended were contributed during the year.

Alumni Contribute to Debt Liquidation Program

During the fifteen month period, June 1, 1942 to September 1, 1943, all contributions received by the College including donations to the Alumni fund will be applied to the Debt Liquidation drive unless otherwise specified by the donors. The $105,000 set as a goal by the Mennonite Board of Education includes the Goshen College debt of $44,000, the Hesston College debt of $30,000, the combined operating needs of Hesston and Goshen College for fifteen months, $23,500, and an emergency fund of $7,500.

For the past two years alumni have been contributing annually approximately $5,000 to Goshen College. This is one third of the total annual contributions required by the College for operating expenses. At a recent meeting of the Alumni Executive Committee, the consensus of opinion set the goal for alumni contributions to the Debt Liquidation program at $15,000, or three times the annual alumni contributions for the past two years. This means that if you gave $10 last year, you should give $20 by June 1, 1943, and $10 more before September 1, 1943.

We do not shrink from such a goal. The Debt Liquidation program had scarcely started before three alumni contributed $1,450. In the next few weeks six or eight more gave an equal amount. And so the stream has continued, and must continue until our goal is reached.

In a few days you alumni who have not yet contributed will receive the usual triple duty envelope asking for your contribution. Why not write out a check and return it at once? Or, better still, send us a subscription for a Government Bond. If you have already contributed through a solicitor, kindly lay this envelope aside for use next year. Perhaps for some legitimate reason you were unable to give your complete donation at one time. Why not use the envelope to send in your second contribution next spring?

Plans are also under way for our Alumni Association President, Professor John Umble, to visit various communities not touched by the regular solicitors. He will give you first hand information regarding the progress of the Debt Liquidation program and the future of Goshen College. Don't fail to read his inspiring message on the back page of this bulletin.

The urgency of the Debt Liquidation program is apparent. Economic history indicates that now is the time to liquidate debts. N.C.A. officials continually point to the debt as a matter to be resolved at the earliest possible moment if accreditment is to be maintained. Under the leadership of President Miller, faculty, alumni, and friends of the College are rallying to the call for funds to liquidate the College debt. The war situation makes the immediate future of Christian education uncertain. A debt-free college will be better able to meet the exigencies of an uncertain future.

Send in your contribution today in cash or bond.

Message from the President of the Alumni Association

Josh Billings once said—or was it Mark Twain?—that a boy of fourteen would be ashamed of himself at forty. The Goshen College Alumni Association has entered its forty-third year, Goshen College its forty-ninth. The enthusiastic founders of the Association would not have believed in 1900 that none of their number would have at least given a building or two to their Alma Mater by the end of the first forty years. Most of them anticipated that, before that time, they would have raised a cool half million in endowment.

Aircastles? Well, rather. A look back through the corridor of years reveals a different view in retrospect than those youthful founders envisioned in prospect.

And yet those who have followed the fortunes of Goshen College during the past ten years, and especially during the past five, have witnessed a growth so startling, so substantial that in many respects it surpasses the wild dreams of forty years ago.—A highly trained staff of Christian instructors, holding doctor's and master's degrees, personnel officers with special training in dealing with the problems of young people, a constituency convinced of the necessity and desirability of regular financial support, a growing body of alumni trained in realistic loyalty, an extended physical plant, recognition of the work of the College by the leading colleges and universities and all the accrediting agencies.

The time has passed when Goshen College alumni need hesitate to admit that they are Goshen graduates. In fact the time has come, when, in many educational and professional circles, it is a mark of distinction to be a Goshen alumnus, a guarantee of high standards of character and scholarship. Even those who have been closely associated with the College in recent years find it amazing to see so much progress in educational standards, in physical plant, in faculty and student morale, in recognition by accrediting agencies and in financial support.

There was a time when the older alumni group had its doubts and questions regarding the future of the College. The College has not always had their full support and confidence. That day too is past. Members of every graduating class are returning to the campus for a visit in increasing numbers. "After all," they say, "this is our Alma Mater, and the Spirit of Goshen lives on!" And a growing percentage are lending their financial support.

The College Administration, in forging ahead on all fronts, is proving itself worthy of the support of the Mennonite Church and of the entire alumni group. President Miller's leadership is offering to all friends of Goshen College a program that is inspiring their confidence and co-operation. He, too, is looking toward the future. He, too, is building a few aircastles, but of the type that have their foundations in reality. He has already shown that he deserves support for his administration. It is only fair that he be permitted to work out his program unhampered by a college debt. It is the privilege of every alumnus to join now in this program to build at Goshen an institution to exalt Christ, to mold Christian character, and to foster a sound, solid program of Christian education. Needed buildings, needed improvements will come, but right now the pressing need is debt liquidation. Alumni dollars will help. EVERY Alumnus a Contributor EVERY Year.

Enrollment Trends in War Time

The first full academic year under war time conditions opened September 1, 1942. In view of the many gloomy prophecies regarding a drop in college enrollments throughout the country due to the war, Goshen College was prepared for a substantial decline in student body in the new year; but when registration day came around, to the considerable surprise and great satisfaction of the administration and faculty, the regular full-time student enrollment was practically the same as it has been the last two years. By October 1, 254 regular students had enrolled, compared to 255 last year, and 252 the year before. The war has not brought any decline in enrollment in two years, although it has probably prevented a substantial growth. Part-time enrollment this year, however, reveals a marked drop with 29 as compared to 83 last year and 81 two years ago. The loss is chiefly in enrollment in evening classes. The first semester enrollment of the new year is considerably higher than that of the second semester last year. In view of the probable drafting of an increased number of men the latter part of this year and next year, a drop in enrollment the second semester is anticipated.

The senior class this year is the largest in the history of the institution. A total of 48 regular seniors plan to graduate with the class of 1942, which is 15 more than a year ago. The Junior class with 32 has decreased 10 and the Sophomore class with 66 is two less. The Freshman class with 104 is 5 less than last year.

The enrollment of Mennonite students has increased somewhat with 177 compared to 170, in addition to 16 from other Mennonite branches, which is 5 less than last year's 21. The percentage of Mennonite students is 70%; including all branches it is 75%.

The enrollment by curriculums continues approximately the same as last year, with 168 or 8 less in Liberal Arts, 45 in Elementary Education, the same as last year; and 26 in Bible, an increase of 10. This increase is in the Bachelor of Theology curriculum. Secretarial students dropped from 18 to 15. The distribution between the sexes is practically identical with that of last year, 114 men and 140 women.

Enrollment by states follows a very similar pattern to that of last year. Pennsylvania increased from 31 to 35, Ohio from 48 to 49, and Illinois from 24 to 33, while Indiana dropped from 119 to 104, and Iowa from 11 to 5. Thirteen states were represented in addition to two provinces in Canada and the country of Argentina in South America.

Freshman occupational choices again follow the familiar pattern of about ¼ in teaching, ¼ in business, 1/10 undecided, 1/10 in engineering, and the remainder scattered.

The registrar has prepared tables covering the major items of interest in registration which are herewith presented, in addition to a full directory of students and faculty.
